Opportunity

Master of human destinies am I!
Fame, love and fortune on my footsteps wait.
Cities and fields I walk; I penetrate
Deserts and seas remote, and passing by
Hovel and mart and palace — soon or late
I knock unbidden once at every gate!

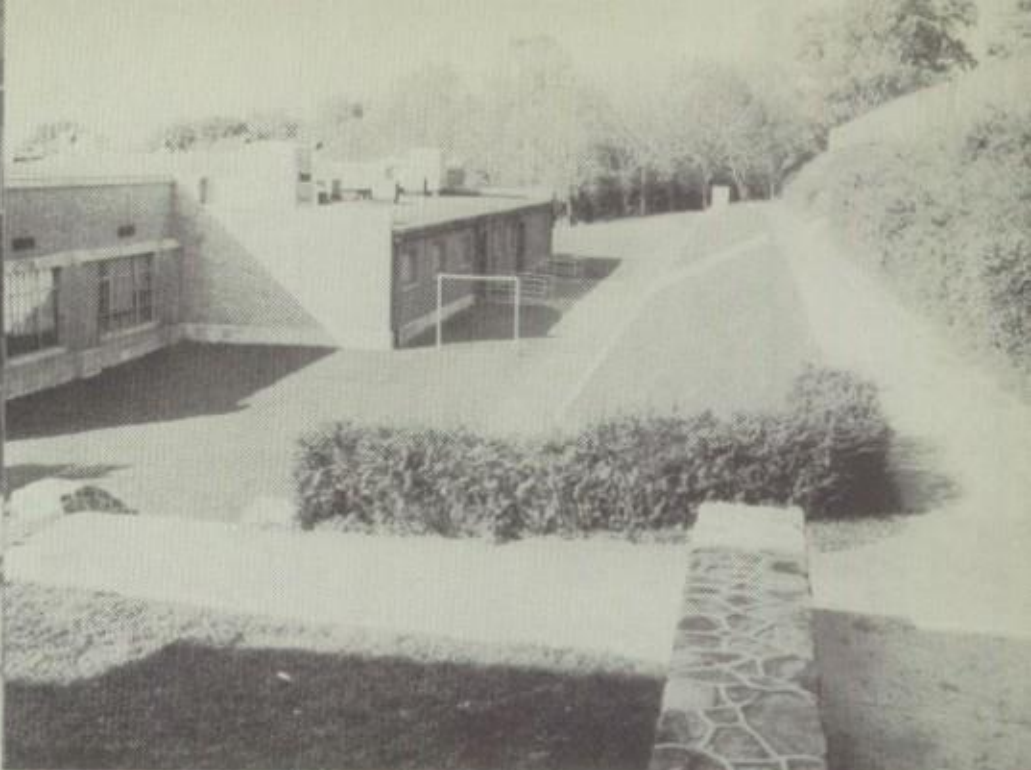

If sleeping, wake — if feasting, rise before
I turn away. It is the hour of fate,
And they follow me reach every state
Mortals desire, and conquer every foe
Save death; but those who doubt or hesitate,
Condemned to failure, penury, and woe,
Seek me in vain and uselessly implore.
I answer not, and I return no more.

Sheltered beneath her walls She keeps her own
Crowning our visions all Skyward doth gleam
And though our westward ways May lead us far,

Children of liber - ty; We call her home.
Our shining cita - del, Strong and se - rene.
We'll keep Arx - al - ma pure, Our guiding star.

Board of Education

President — Mr. Herbert J. Jones, Jr.

Vice President — Dr. Emil J. Bartos

Secretary — Mr. Russell O. Anderson

Treasurer — Mr. Reuben H. Rhoads

History will mark the school year 1957-58 as one of outstanding progress in many significant ways for the Reading School District. Seldom in one single year has any city taken as many positive strides toward the establishment of a better educational system designed to provide the best possible intellectual, physical and social preparation for young men and women who will be the leaders of tomorrow's world.

Improvement of classroom instruction always has been emphasized in our school district. This school year has seen an awakened interest in individual responsibility for such improvement through in-service workshops.

In the wake of international developments and increased focus of public attention on American schools, we in Reading have taken stock of our resources. We have refused to place excessive emphasis on any one aspect of education to the exclusion of others of equal importance.

Concrete evidence of today's foresight will be seen for years to come in the extensive building program which the school board has planned. Expansion of services this year have provided additional educational opportunities for our children and adults.

Seated — Dr. Emil J. Bartos, Vice-President; Joseph P. Kuzminski, Philip D. Rowe, Dr. Albert J. Strohecker, Herbert J. Jones, Jr., President; Lewis A. Gaul, Vincent Strollo, Gus Yatron; Standing — John S. Rhoda, Solicitor; Reuben H. Rhoads, Treasurer; Dr. Ralph C. Geigle, Superintendent of Schools; Russell O. Anderson, Secretary; Russell C. Clump, Superintendent of Buildings; Albert Landis, Superintendent of Supplies; Absent — Terrence E. Connor

Administrators and Supervisors

Superintendent of Schools

Dr. Ralph C. Geigle

Heading the various instructional and special service departments in the schools of the Reading School District were our capable district Administrators and Supervisors.

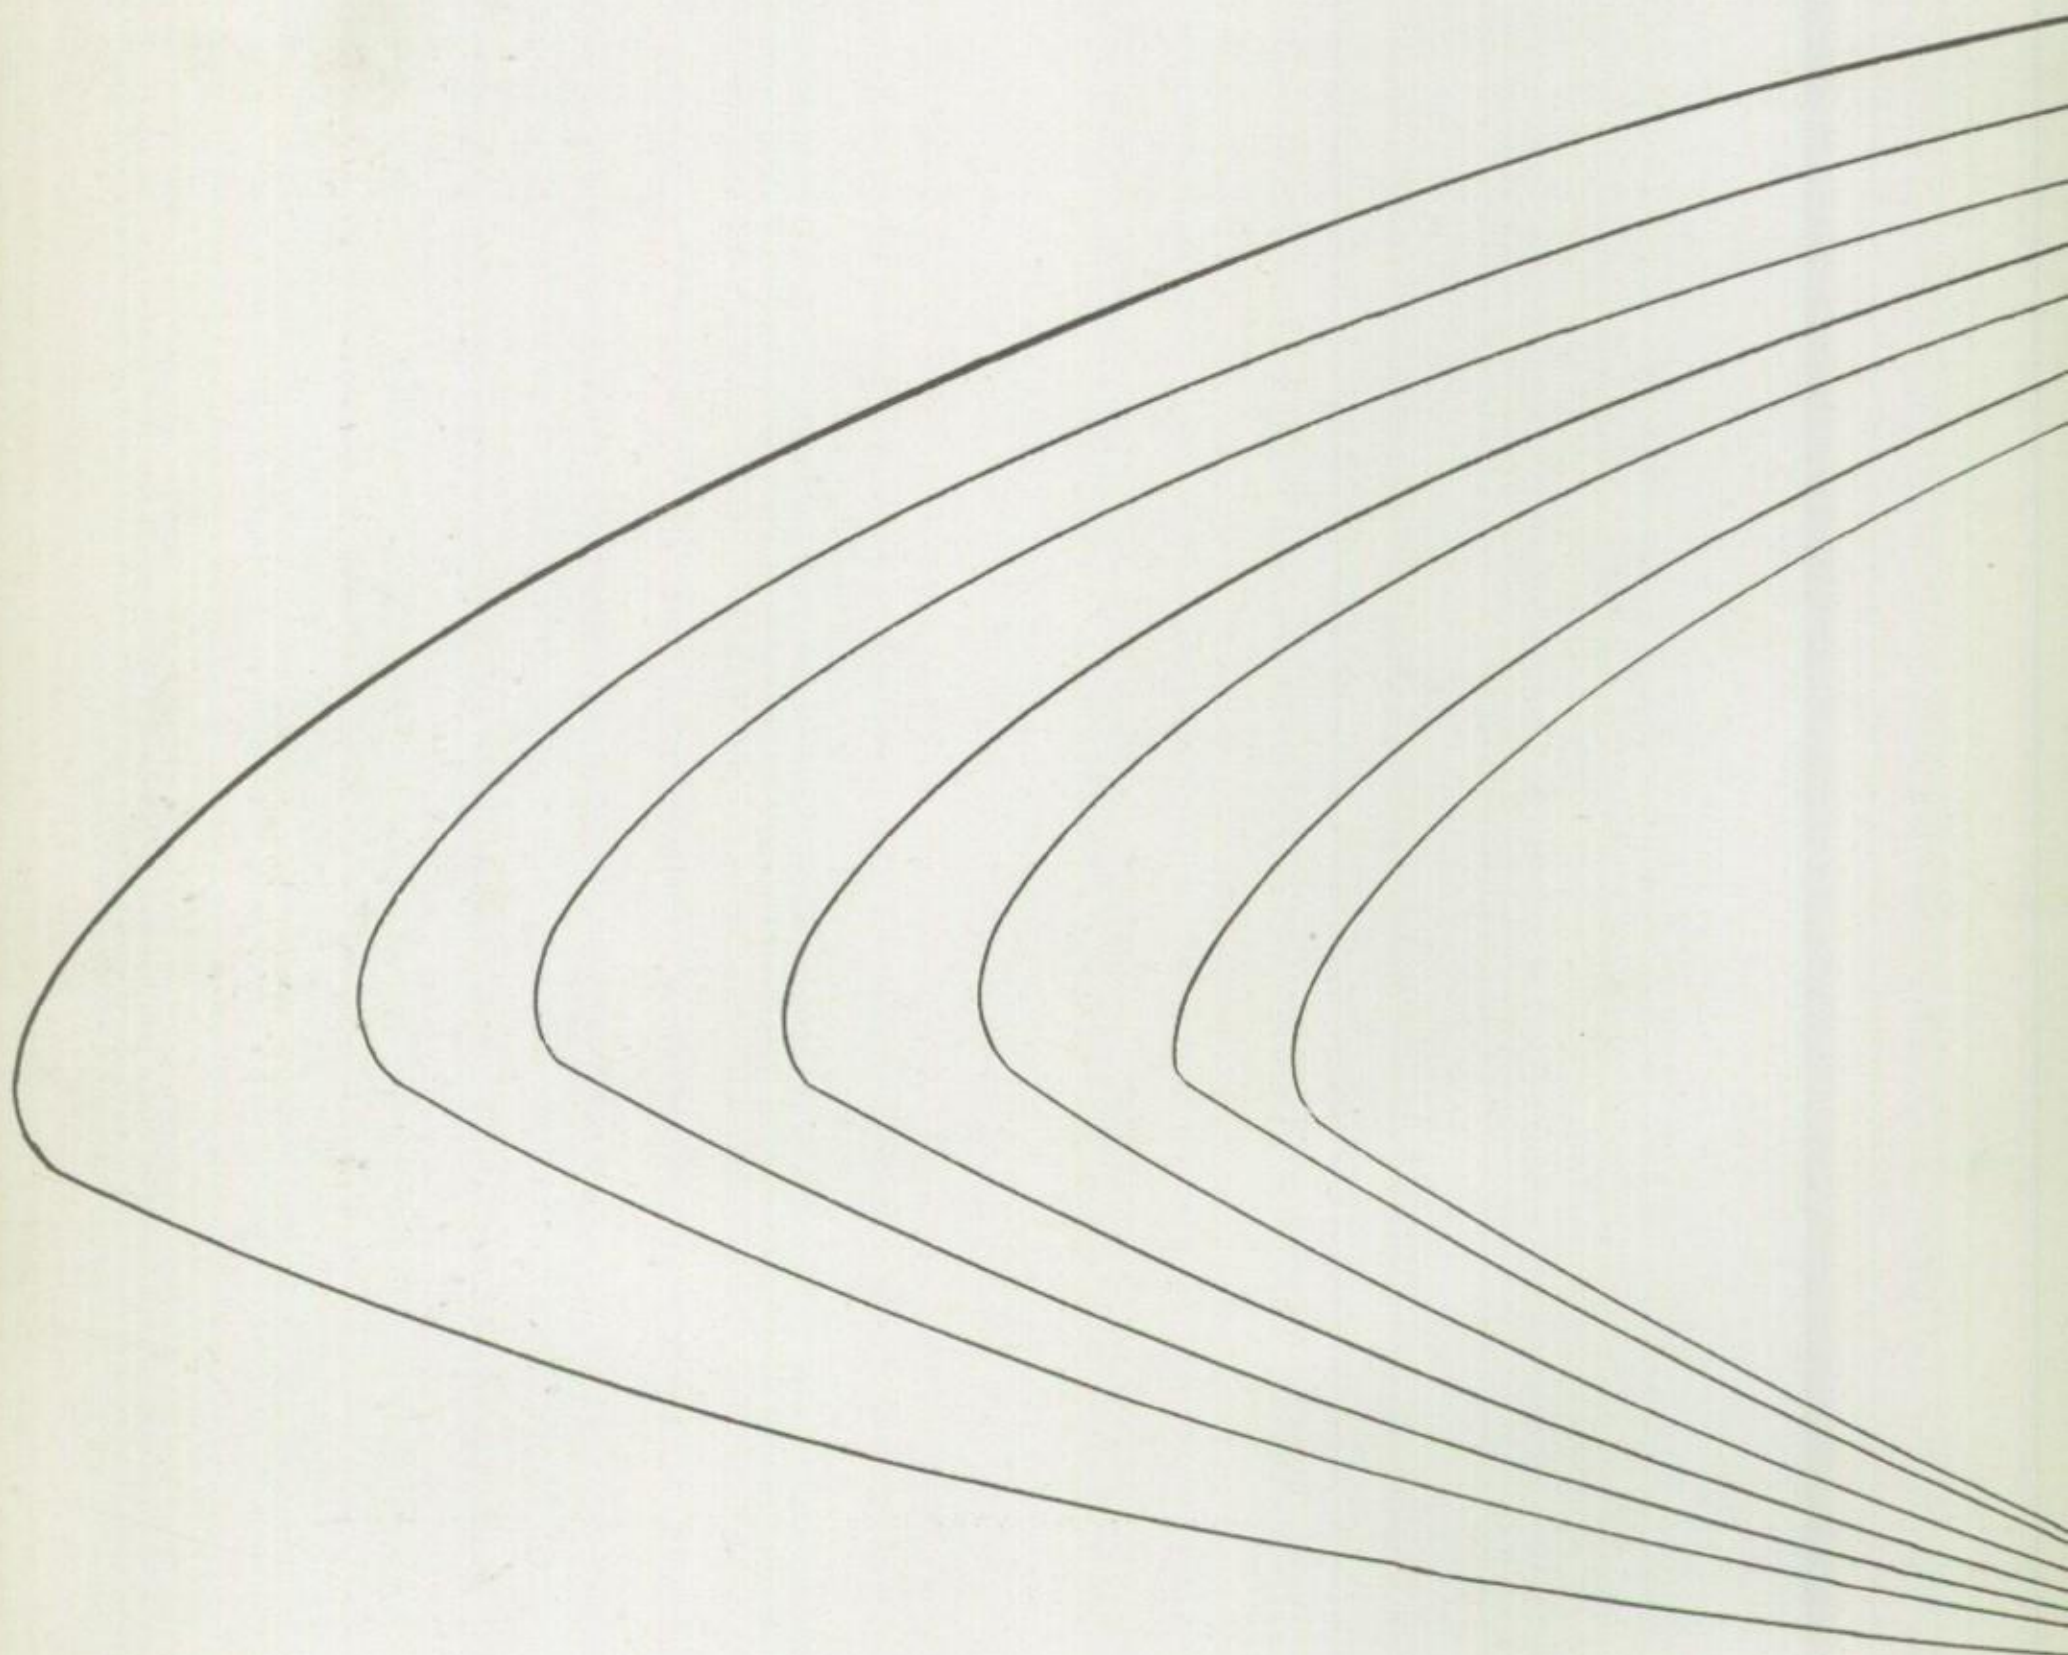

Through the leadership of this administrative group, the curricular and extra-curricular programs, activities, and educational services of the elementary, secondary, and special schools were coordinated and correlated to meet the educational needs of our youths of today.

In addition, when necessary, members of this group studied, evaluated, and introduced effective new educational measures and services into the total school program according to the increasing needs of our youth and the ever-changing demands of our dynamic society.

Seated — Mr. Henry Monyer, Administrative Assistant; Dr. Ralph C. Geigle, Superintendent of Schools; Miss Anna Lee Taylor, Supervisor of Art; Miss Laura Hoch, Supervisor of Nutrition; Miss Florence Seiders, Supervisor of Home Economics; Standing — Mr. William Bernhart, Director of Public Relations; Mr. J. Herbert Kissinger, Director of Industrial Education; Mr. Lorenzo Zeugner, Psychologist and Supervisor of Special Education; Mr. Samuel Gundy, Acting Director of the Reading Museum and Art Gallery; Mr. Robert Snyder, Director of Guidance and Attendance; Mr. Emmanuel Jacobs, Director of Physical Education; Mr. Charles Keller, Hr., Director of Music.

Faculty

Judie Wennich

Principal

Mr. LeVan P. Smith

Reading High School's prominent position in the field of education was made possible chiefly through the leadership and guidance of our dynamic principal, Mr. LeVan P. Smith.

As a result of his untiring efforts, the total school program was constantly enriched to meet the needs of our youth in an ever changing society.

Principal's Secretary

Miss Marian J. Moyer

Secretarial assistance given by Miss Marian J. Moyer proved valuable in expediting the work of the principal and the principal's council.

Vice-Principals

Mr. Ivan E. Newpher

Faithfully serving Reading High School in the role as vice-principal, Mr. Ivan E. Newpher served as counselor for boys, and supervisor of the school lunch and assembly programs.

Miss Ethel M. Hicks

Services rendered by Miss Ethel M. Hicks, our other capable administrative assistant, were schedule construction for teachers and students, supervision of the guidance department, and special counseling for girls.

Principal's Council

The administrative unit, better known as the Principal's Council, was a body which consisted of the principal, vice-principals, and nine department heads. Convening weekly, they discussed and formulated policies necessary for the operation and enrichment of the total school program.

By coordinating and integrating the instruction and activities of the various departments, a smooth and effective educational program was achieved.

Highlighting the outstanding achievements of this unit was the evaluation, adoption, and promotion of a program of increased academic standards to meet the everchanging demands of a modern society.

Seated — Mr. Ivan E. Newpher, Vice-Principal; Miss Ethel M. Hicks, Vice-Principal; Mr. LeVan P. Smith, Principal; Miss Marian J. Moyer, Principal's Secretary; Miss Martha M. Morrette, Foreign Language Department; Miss Elsie V. Holland, Home Economics Department; Standing — Mr. Norman C. Brillhart, Social Science Department; Mr. David L. Hoffman, Mathematics Department; Mr. Charles R. Hawman, English Department; Mr. W. Whalen Fenstermacher, Science Department; Mr. William S. Whitely, Commercial Department; Mr. Roland P. Kyle, Heath and Physical Education Department; Mr. J. Kenneth Conley, Industrial Education Department.

Guidance

Department Head —
Miss E. Hicks—1st Sem.

Personal . . . School . . . Vocational . . . and College-counseling were offered continuously to students of R.H.S. by the Guidance Department.

Through individual conferences and group guidance, students received instruction, assistance, and counseling for future vocations and professional careers.

Miss Ethel M. Hicks, department head, explains important phases of the new schedule for 1958-59 to members of her staff.

Due to increased responsibilities of Miss Ethel M. Hicks, our vice principal, Mr. Joseph E. Haage was named as acting-head of the Guidance Department as of February 4, 1958.

College counseling was capably provided by our college adviser, Mr. Cinton D. Getz.

Department

Department Head —
Mr. J. Haage—2nd Sem.

Special activities sponsored by the guidance department which proved beneficial to our student body included the Drexel Testing Program, College Night, the Marriage Forum, Career Conferences, Panel Discussions, the Pennsylvania State Employment Service Tests and Interviews, and supervision of student visitations to local industries.

Extending personal guidance to individual students and supervising the home-room guidance programs were the chief duties of Miss Grace W. Trout.

In addition to being vocational counselor, Mr. William H. Wisler supervised various testing programs and also served as the school representative for the processing of work permit applications.

Many times Mr. Connard C. Cramp supplemented his regular class instruction with informal group discussions.

Science Department

Department Head —

Mr. W. Whalen Fenstermacher

Space . . . today's challenge; tomorrow's frontier.

Physical and biological courses offered at R.H.S. continue to keep in pace with all phases of our nation's scientific progress, and as such provide the knowledge and background necessary to our students for an intelligent understanding of scientific advancement of the present and of the future.

Procedures to be followed in entering student projects in the Science Fair at Albright College are outlined by the science department head, Mr. W. Whalen Fenstermacher.

Seated — Mr. Theodore Starr, Mr. Warren R. Filer, Mr. Fred E. Luckenbill, Miss Arline Winter, Mrs. Angeline K. Doty; Standing — Mr. John E. Sheetz, Jr.; Mr. Charles A. Schaich, Mr. Lewis F. Marderness, Mr. W. Whalen Fenstermacher

Members of Miss Angeline Doty's advanced biology class use the Rayscope to study enlarged views of minute cell structures.

Inquisitive chemistry students show intense interest as Mr. Carl Schaich performs and explains the complicated experiment of separating chemical compounds.

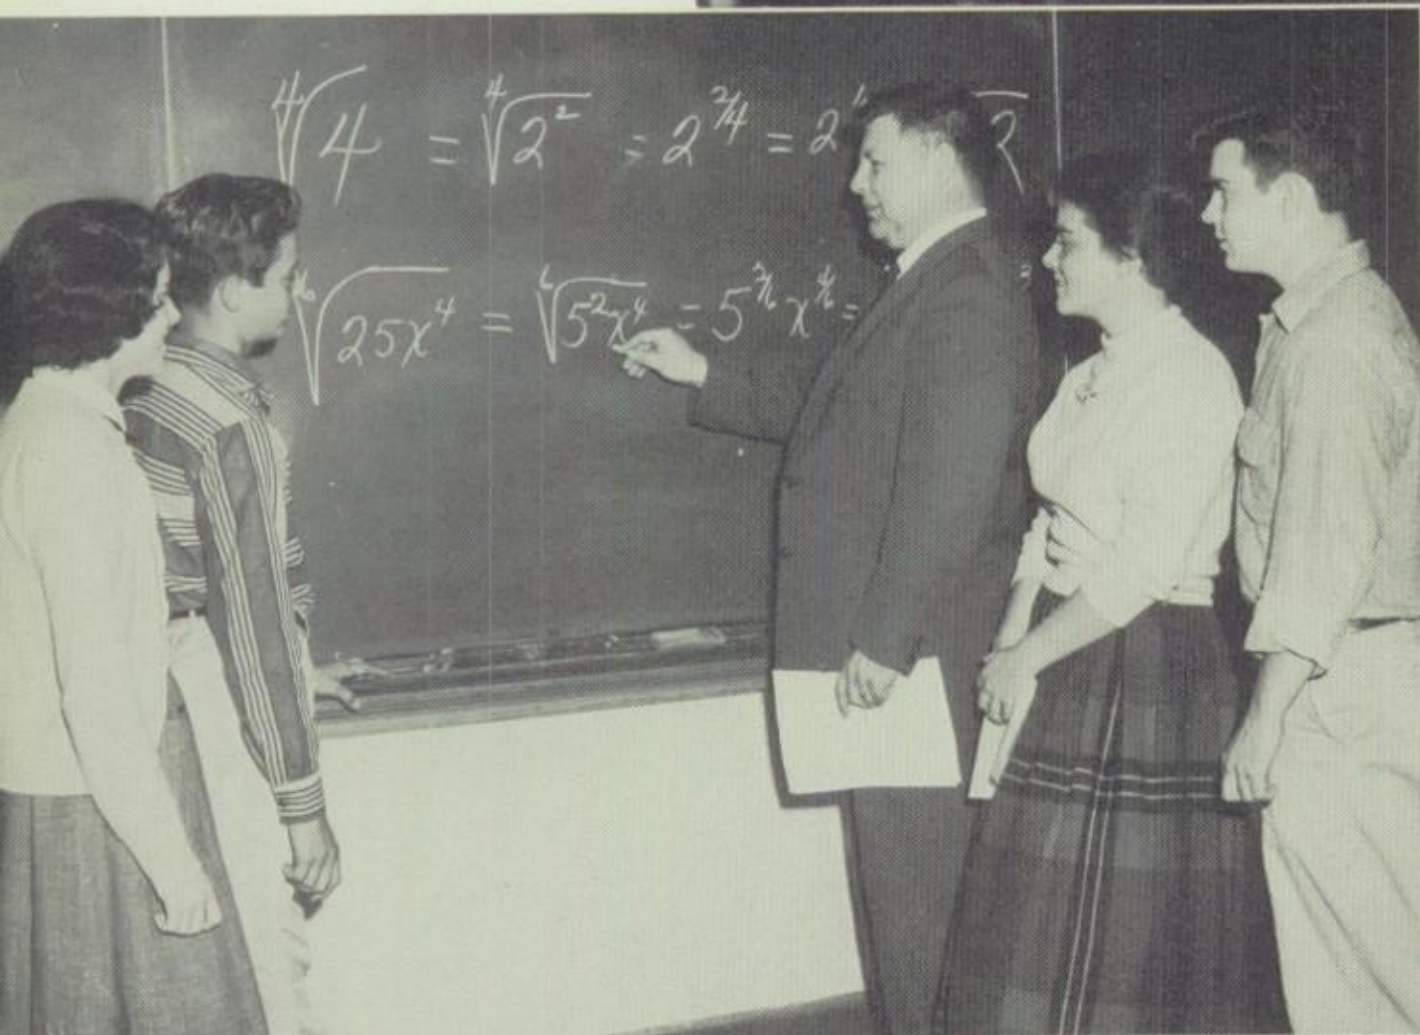

Mathematics Department

Department Head —

Mr. David L. Hoffman

Computation . . . Measurements . . . Problem Solving — mastery of these and other important phases of mathematics enabled students to acquire the quantitative concepts required for effective application in college, vocational or every day use.

Offered by the department were integrated and well-planned courses designed to fit the needs of the students according to the various curricula.

Mr. David Hoffman, our newly appointed head of the mathematics department, leads his staff members in a discussion of the values of a new instructional film.

Row 1 — Miss Elizabeth E. Smith, Mr. R. Stuart Stump, Mr. Harry M. Scott, Miss Olga M. Pfau; Row 2 — Mr. Carl E. Boltz, Mr. John L. Sharadin, Mr. William Horine; Standing — Mr. David L. Hoffman

College algebra students receive a clear explanation of a puzzling problem from Mr. John L. Sharadin, our new mathematics teacher.

Important math principles related to the students' shop work were capably explained by Mr. Harry Scott in his industrial geometry classes.

English Department

Department Head —
Mr. Charles Hawman

Writing . . . Speaking . . . and Reading skills required for modern day living were emphasized in the English department's program.

Regular as well as special courses were designed to fit the needs of students. Among the special courses were the school newspaper, the weekly radio program, and the school yearbook.

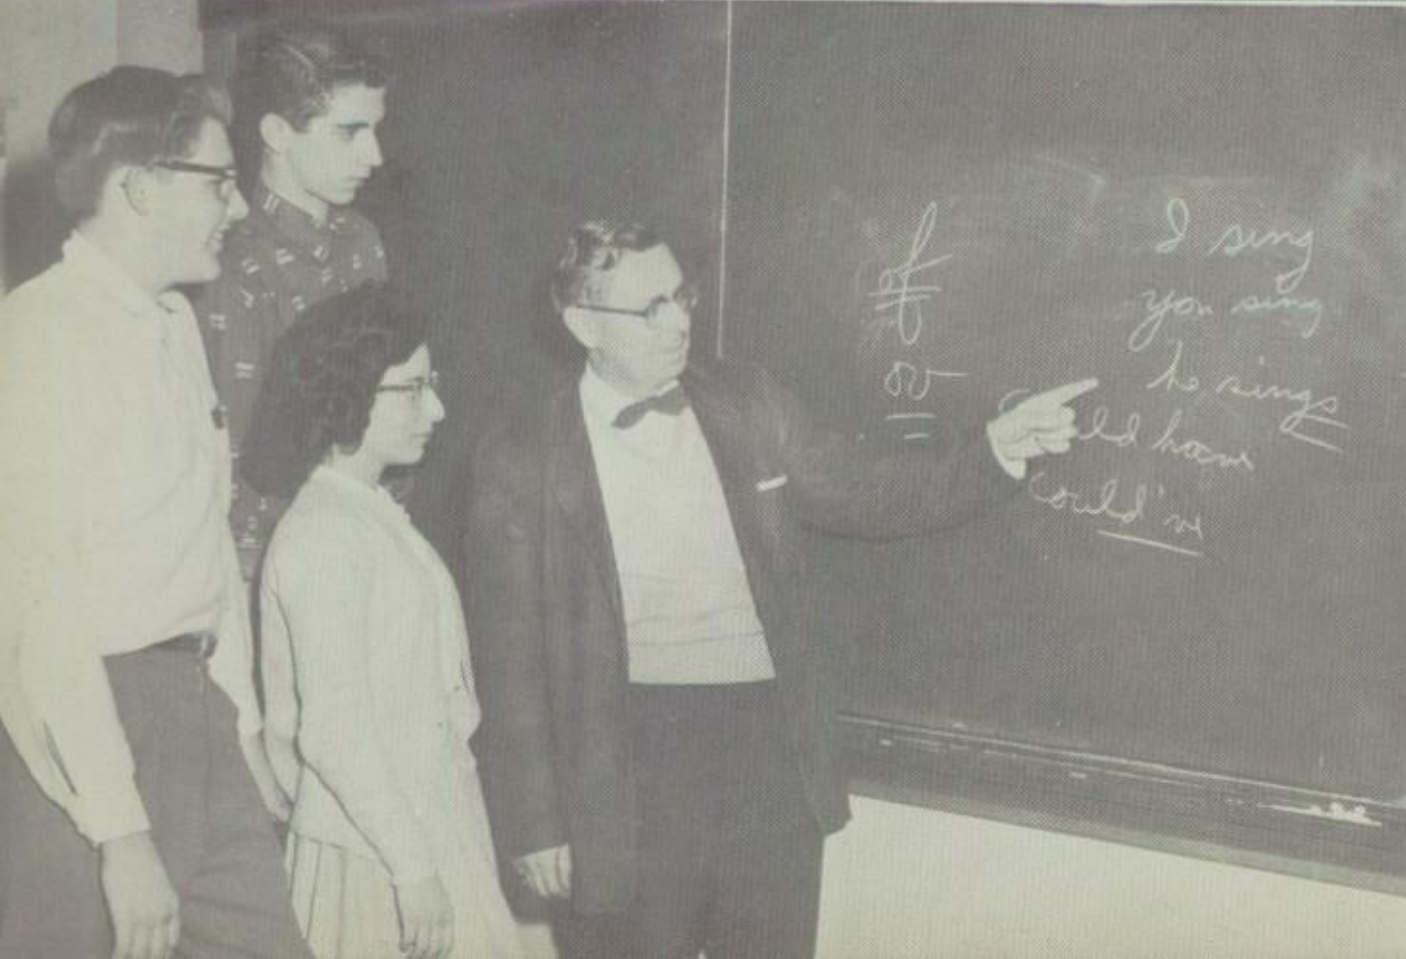

Sponsoring the annual "Voice of Democracy" contest was one of the many extra-curricular activities promoted by our English department.

Row 1 — Mrs. Kathryn Kline, Miss Sarah E. Koch, Miss Margaret A. Yost, Miss Gloria L. Rodgers; Row 2 — Mr. Bertolet B. Bossler, Mr. H. Robert Barrett, Mrs. Amy Bell, Miss Elta Unangst; Row 3 — Mr. William Burkhart, Mr. Joseph G. Plank, Mr. Norbert Billinger, Mr. Charles R. Hawman

Interesting and lively class discussions about literary masterpieces highlighted Mr. Joseph Plank's English program.

Mr. H. Robert Barrett, one of our new teachers, explains an important phase of English grammar to a few students in one of his tenth grade classes.

Social Science Department

Department Head —
Mr. Norman C. Brillhart

Local . . . State . . . National . . . and International events were skillfully explained to our students by our social science teachers. As a result, students were better informed about social, political, and economic issues of the day.

Films, newspapers, and field trips supplemented the classroom instruction.

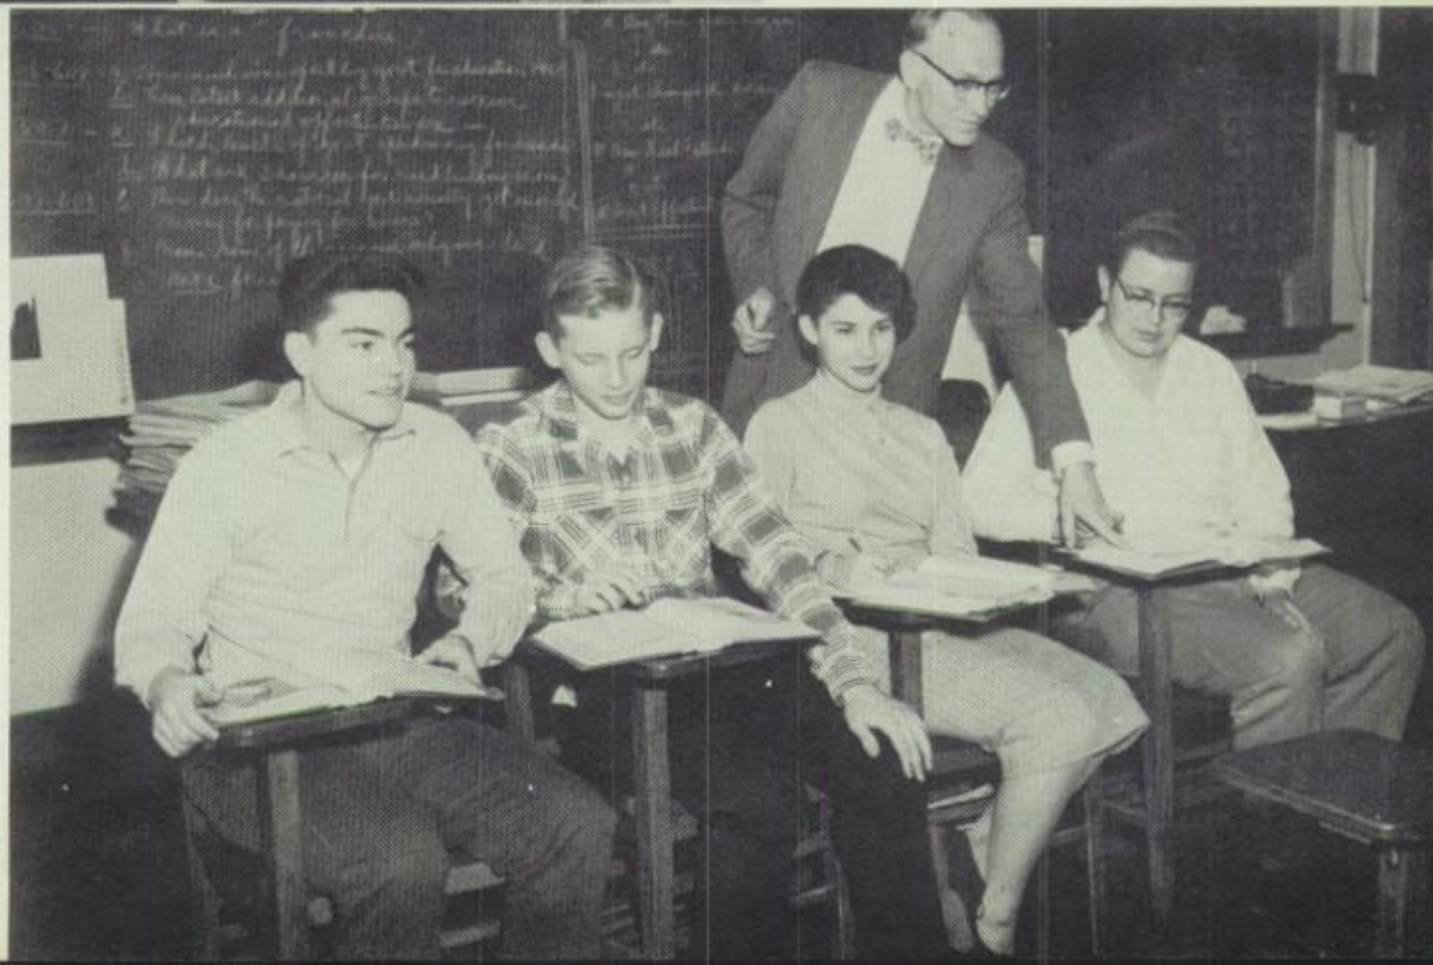

Mr. Norman C. Brillhart, head of the department, explains the importance of emphasizing global concepts in various phases of the social sciences.

Row 1 — John J. Dietrich, Norman C. Brillhart, Valeria E. Hoffert, Martha V. Schmidt; Row 2 — Norman R. Boyer, Anthony P. Stopper, Albert H. Harris, Owen J. Davis, Lloyd R. Enoch

Frequent use of the current events weekly, "The American Observer", kept Mr. Owen J. Davis' history classes well-informed about national and international affairs.

An effective instructional method, the panel discussion, was often used by Mr. Lloyd R. Enoch to stimulate students interest and class participation.

Commercial Department

Department Head —

Mr. William S. Whiteley

Secretarial . . . Clerical . . . Bookkeeping — these phases of the commercial curriculum offered students an extensive number of courses suited to the students' vocational needs.

In addition to receiving valuable instructional benefits, students were able to acquire skills in the use of modern office equipment.

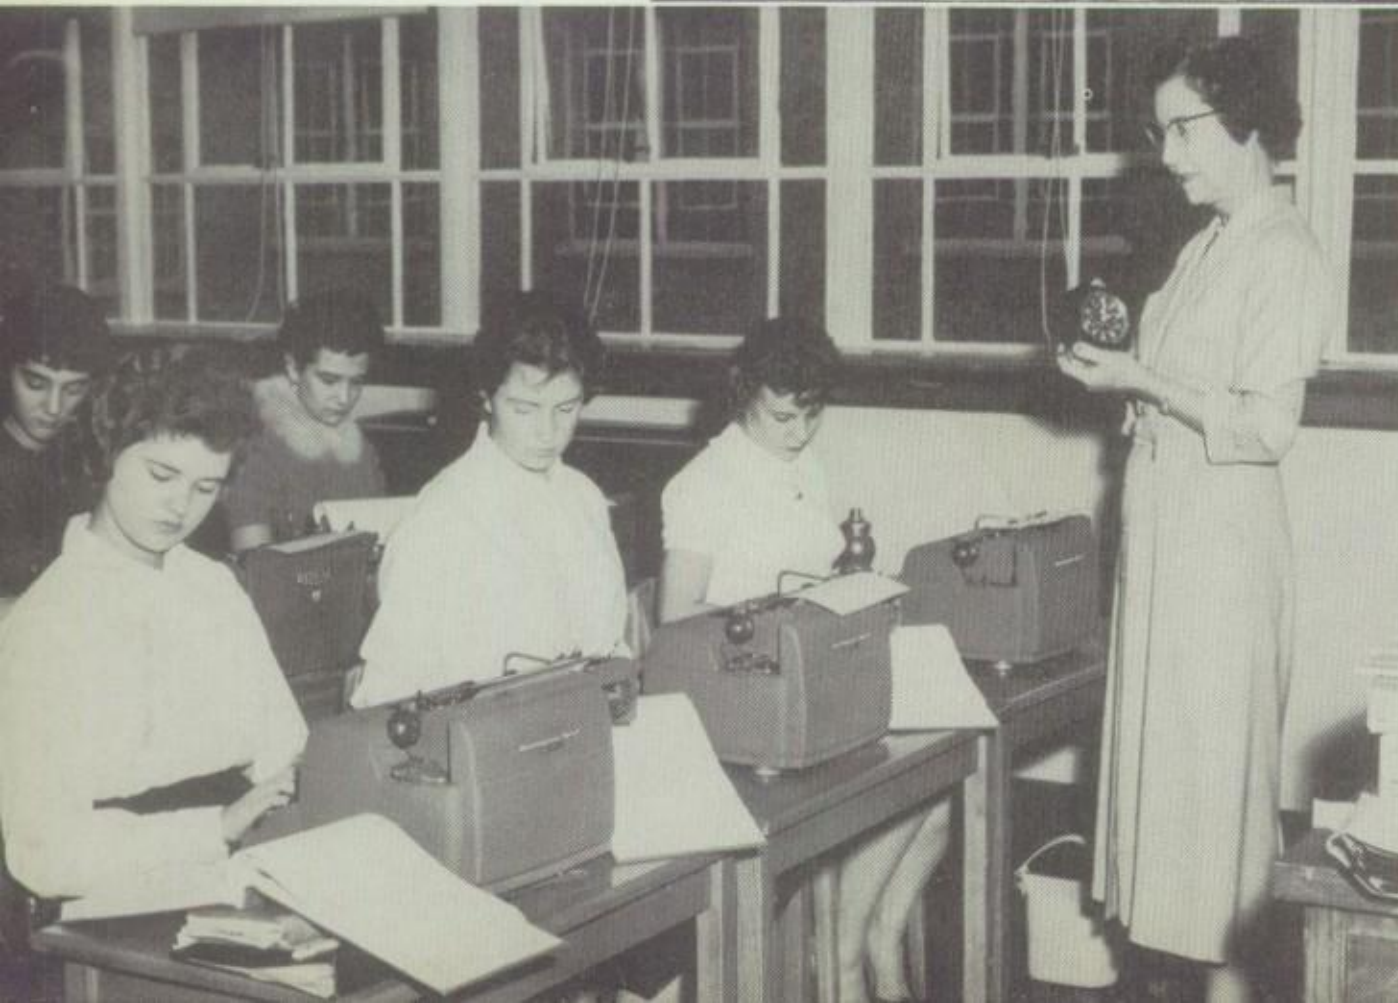

Mr. William S. Whiteley, department head, explains the operation of the new multilith duplicating machine to the members of his department.

Seated — Mr. Joseph Grande, Miss Dorothy E. Shultz, Mrs. Julia F. Sabol, Miss Edith R. Fairlamb; Standing — Mr. William S. Bannon, Mr. Mark Guthrie, Sr., Mr. Ray W. Reber, Miss Johanna Mertz, Mrs. J. Barbara Martin, Mrs. Doris M. Shafer, Mr. J. Norman Taylor, Mr. Philip W. Moore; At machine—Mr. William S. Whiteley

Special practice sheets proved to be effective teaching aids in Mr. William Bannon's bookkeeping classes.

Members of Miss J. Barbara Martin's typing class aim for speed and accuracy in one of the special time exercises.

Commercial Department

Transcribing and typing dictation exercises constituted a few of the many activities in Miss Johanna Mertz's shorthand classes.

Distributive Education

Coordinator —

Mr. Joseph J. Grande

The Distributive Education course incorporating the co-operative merchandising program supervised by our school coordinator and local retail merchants was but one of the progressive offerings of the commercial department.

Classroom instruction plus practical experience in the "school store" preceded actual part-time employment in local stores.

Four Distributive Education coordinators from near-by areas discuss the merits of their respective D. E. programs with the state coordinator, Samuel W. Caplan.

Seated—Joseph J. Grande, Reading High School; Blanche Curran, Pottsville High School; Samuel W. Caplan, Chief Distributive Education, Staff of Pennsylvania; Standing — Jerome A. Beidelman, Bethlehem High School; Robert W. Stimmel, Allentown High School

Industrial Department

Department Head — J. Kenneth Conley

Craftsmen . . . Technicians . . . Engineers — in the hands of these specialists, and other industrial workers of the future, rest the industrial progress and leadership of our nation in years to come.

In meeting this continuous challenge, RHS offered an extensive and practical general shop program for our industrial arts students, and a comprehensive vocational curriculum for students who wished to specialize in a specific industrial field for vocational or professional careers.

Mr. Norman Diener's explanation of the new Heidelberg automatic printing press proved to be an interesting climax to one of the early staff meetings.

Standing — Mr. J. Kenneth Conley, Mr. Horace C. Ball, Mr. James W. McIntyre, Mr. John L. McQuate, Mr. Walter A. Griesemer, Mr. Richard I. Boyer, Mr. Paul Miller, Mr. George A. Schieck, Mr. Norman R. Diener. Absent — Mr. E. Raymond Hendricks.

Progress on one of the many useful student-planned projects is checked by our woodshop teacher, Mr. J. Kenneth Conley.

Our print shop teacher, Mr. Norman R. Diener, explains the operation of the automatic cylinder press to a few of his "junior printers."

Our new mechanical drawing teacher, Mr. E. Raymond Hendricks, assists his students in the proper interpretation of a complicated blueprint.

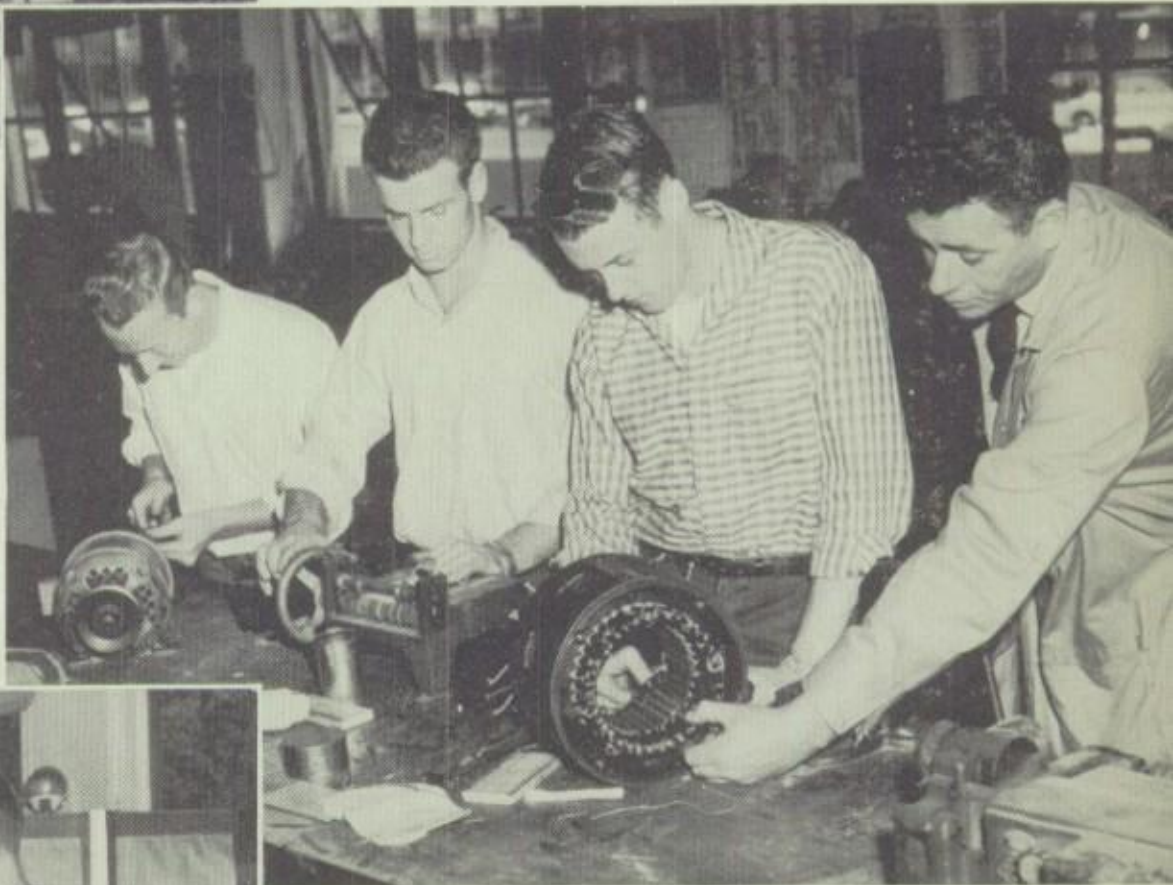

Industrial Department

Mr. Walter A. Griesemer's general shop program offered a rich background for boys hoping to specialize in the industrial vocational courses in their junior and senior years.

Under the careful supervision of Mr. George A. Schieck, our boys acquire a variety of special skills in operating machine shop equipment.

Interesting projects emphasizing various fields of electronics were offered to our industrial boys in Mr. Richard I. Boyer's electric shop.

Mr. Paul Miller, our auto shop teacher, explains the values of the Sun Distributor Tester in checking car ignition.

Foreign Language Department

Department Head —

Miss Martha M. Morrette

Cultural . . . Practical . . . Inspirational — As a result of studying French, Spanish, Latin, or German, students were able to gain not only reading, writing, and speaking skills in these languages, but also an appreciation of the life, customs, and culture of the people as well.

Miss Martha M. Morrette and members of her foreign language department evaluate various instructional aids for effective use in the department program.

Seated — Miss Martha M. Morette; Standing — Mrs. Sarah D. Yatron, Miss Alethia N. Love, Miss Theana Kotrelis, Mr. Warren F. Gish

Frequently, Miss Theana Kotrelis used Spanish records to help students master speaking skills in the foreign language.

In the Latin classes, Miss Alethia N. Love used a variety of illustrative material to supplement classroom instruction.

Home Economics Department

Chairman —

Miss Elsie V. Holland

Food Preparation . . . Clothing Designing . . . Personal Management — constituted some of the general areas of emphasis in the homemaking program at R.H.S.

A chef's course for boys and a child care program for girls highlighted the special offerings of this department.

Members of the home economics staff prepare supply lists for their new class projects.

Miss Blanche Spaar, Miss Charlotte E. Kahler, Miss Elsie V. Holland

Helping students to design and make clothes for personal use were two major aims in Miss Blanche Spaar's clothing classes.

Besides preparing meals for themselves and others, students of Miss Elsie Holland's classes gained experience in table etiquette.

Mr. Theodore Walker, Mr. J. Carl Borelli, and Mr. Charles Keller, Music Supervisor of the Reading School District, discuss plans for effective stage lighting and setting for the Evening of Music.

In addition to successfully directing large choral organizations, Mr. Theodore Walker capably assisted smaller vocal units to master the fundamentals of group harmony.

Music Department

Melody . . . Harmony . . . Rhythm . . . were a few of the elements emphasized in the music program.

Courses offered in vocal music included girls' trio, quartette, octette, girls' chorus and glee clubs, and the A Cappella choir.

Specialized instrumental training was given to students through brass and string ensembles, band class, and dance band. The Castleaires, orchestra, concert band, and varsity band provided advanced training for our instrumentalists.

String ensemble was one of the many instrumental groups directed by our new music instructor, Mr. J. Carl Borelli.

Art Department

Designers . . . Craftsmen . . . Illustrators — as well as many other local people in professional field of art gained initial skills in their respective fields through the means of extensive art courses offered at R.H.S. throughout the years.

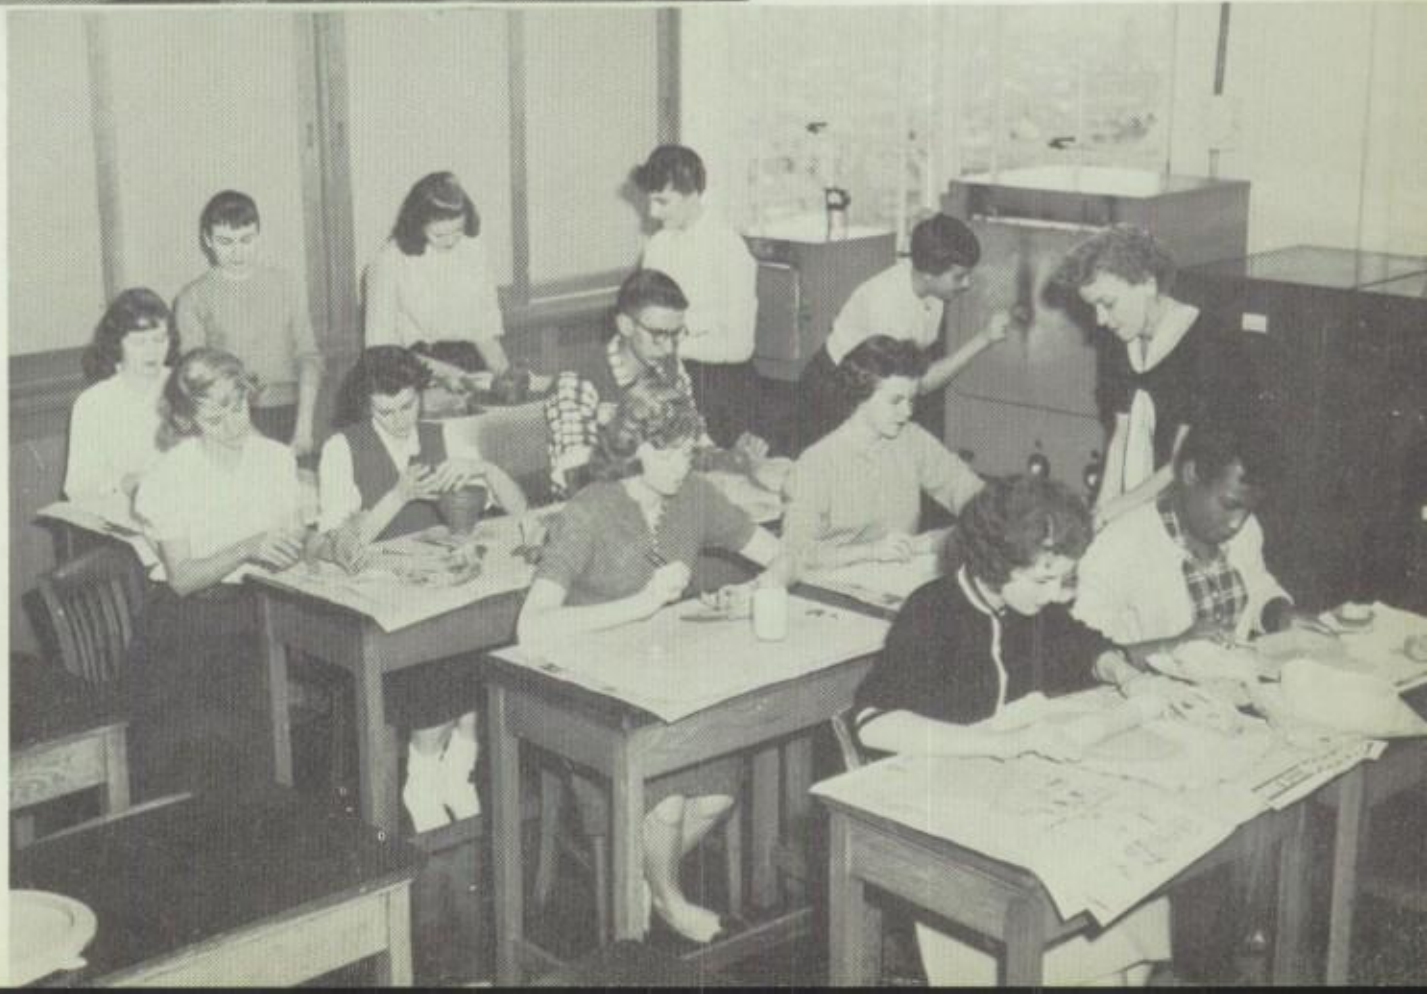

As in previous years, not only did the art program provide students with basic training for professional careers in art, but for wholesome recreation and appreciation as well.

Members of our art department and Miss Anna L. Taylor, Supervisor of Art for the Reading School District, discuss the attractive features of a student ceramic project.

A variety of crafts stimulating student imagination and creative ability were taught by Mrs. Lillian Norton.

Health Services

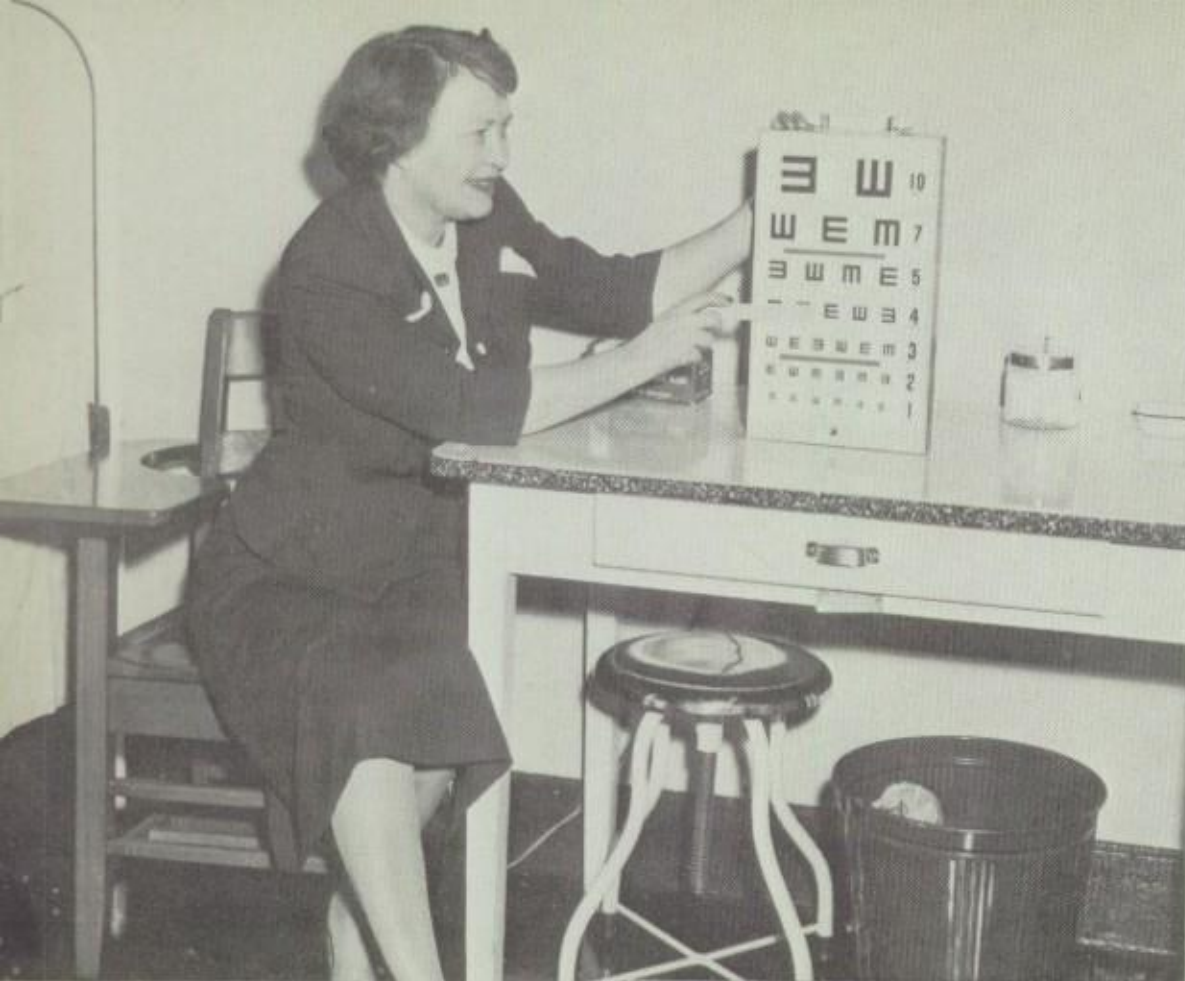

School Nurse —

Mrs. Naomi O. Bridegam, R.N.

School Doctor — Dr. Lynwood Keller

Examining . . . Detecting . . . Counseling — these phases of the health service program provided by the school nurse and the school doctor played an important role in helping our students maintain standards of good health.

In addition to her daily responsibilities in the health room, our school nurse sponsored a nursing club to help students prepare for future nursing careers.

Health room activities were capably handled by our school nurse, Mrs. Naomi O. Bridegam, R.N.

Through the Future Nurses Club, many of our girls gained knowledge and experience in institutional care.

This year each eleventh grade student received a complete physical examination from our school physician, Dr. Lynwood Keller.

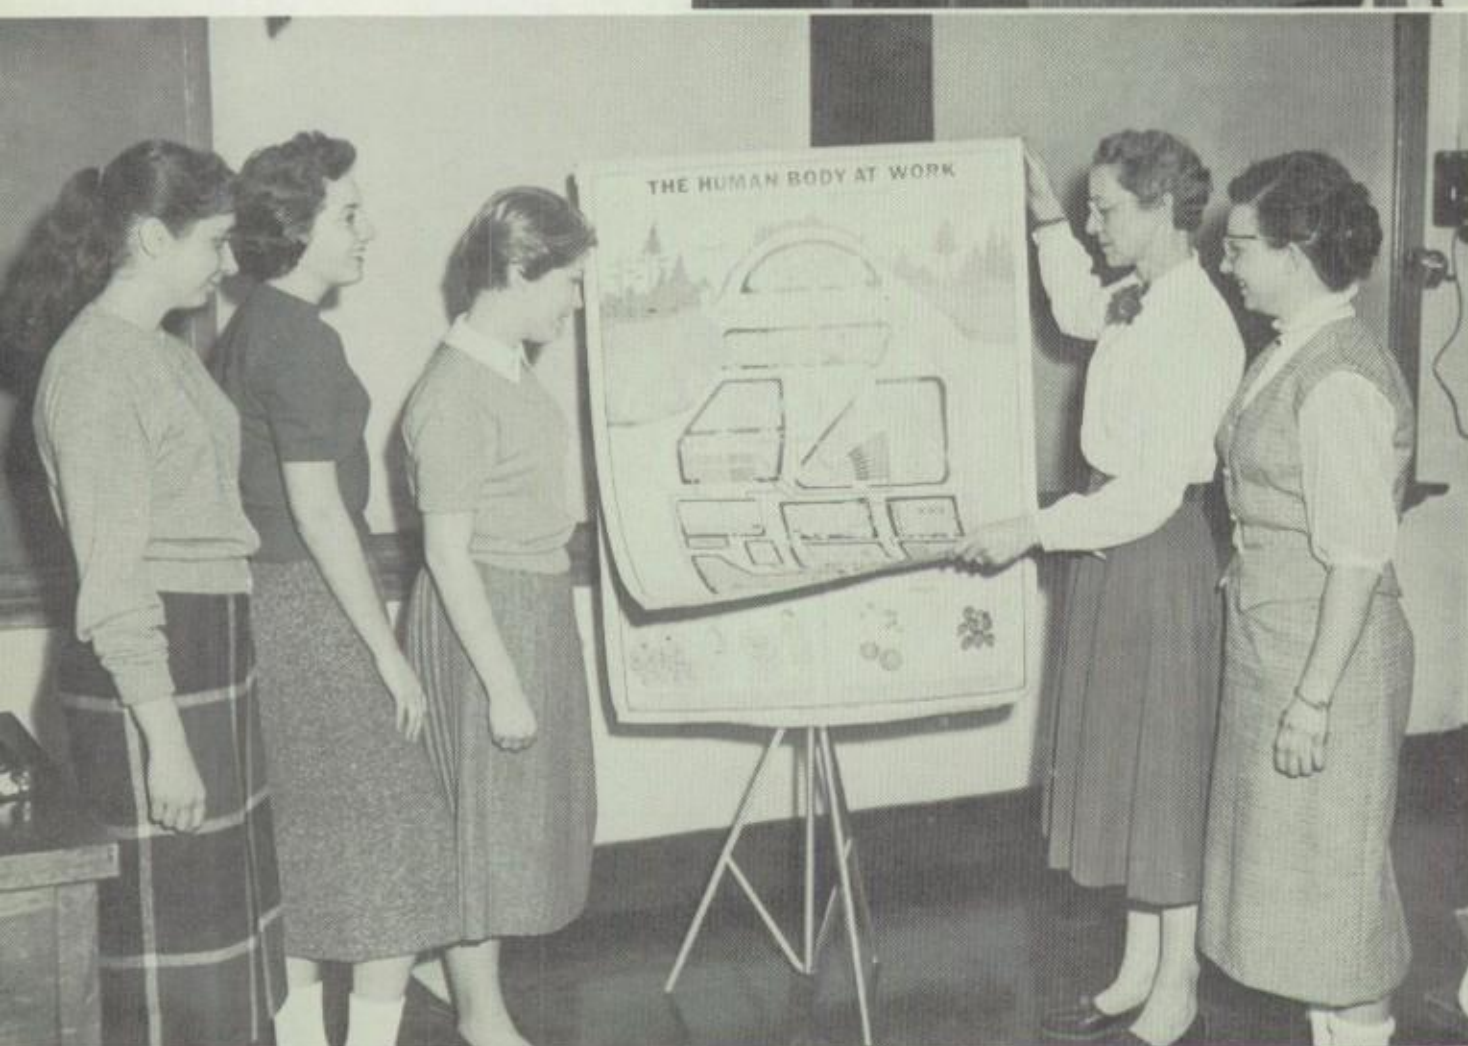

Health and Physical Education Department

Chairman — Mr. Roland P. Kyle

Interest . . . Participation . . . Skill—displayed by the students in the health and physical education classes were essential to the students' personal health and physical development.

In helping students to acquire a high degree of physical fitness, the physical education department offered a well-planned gymnastic program.

Supplementing this program were classes in first aid, safety education and personal health.

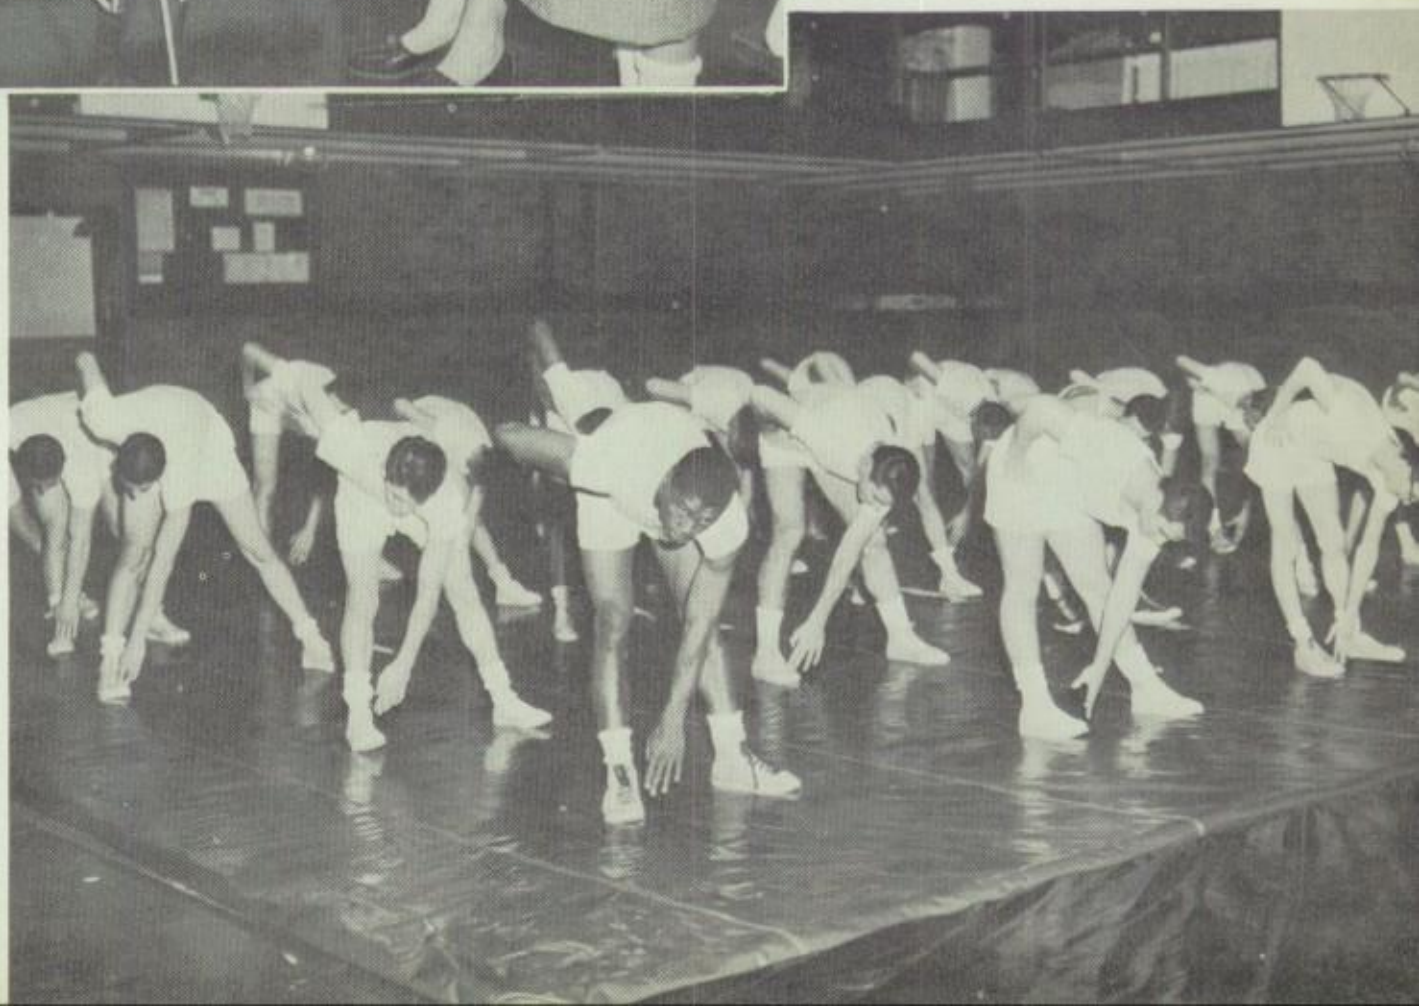

Before adopting any new books for class use members of the department carefully evaluated a number of outstanding books specifically designed to meet the needs of the students.

Row 1 — Mr. Roland P. Kyle, department chairman; Mrs. Elizabeth N. Ruhrman, Miss Katherine E. Kaufmann, Mrs. Janet B. Gorman; Row 2 — Mr. William H. Foltz, Mr. Harrison H. Stump, Mr. Charles Dunkelberger; Row 3 — Mr. Robert Mattern, Mr. Bernard Kaplan

Mrs. Elizabeth N. Ruhrman used detailed charts to supplement the regular classroom instruction in her health classes.

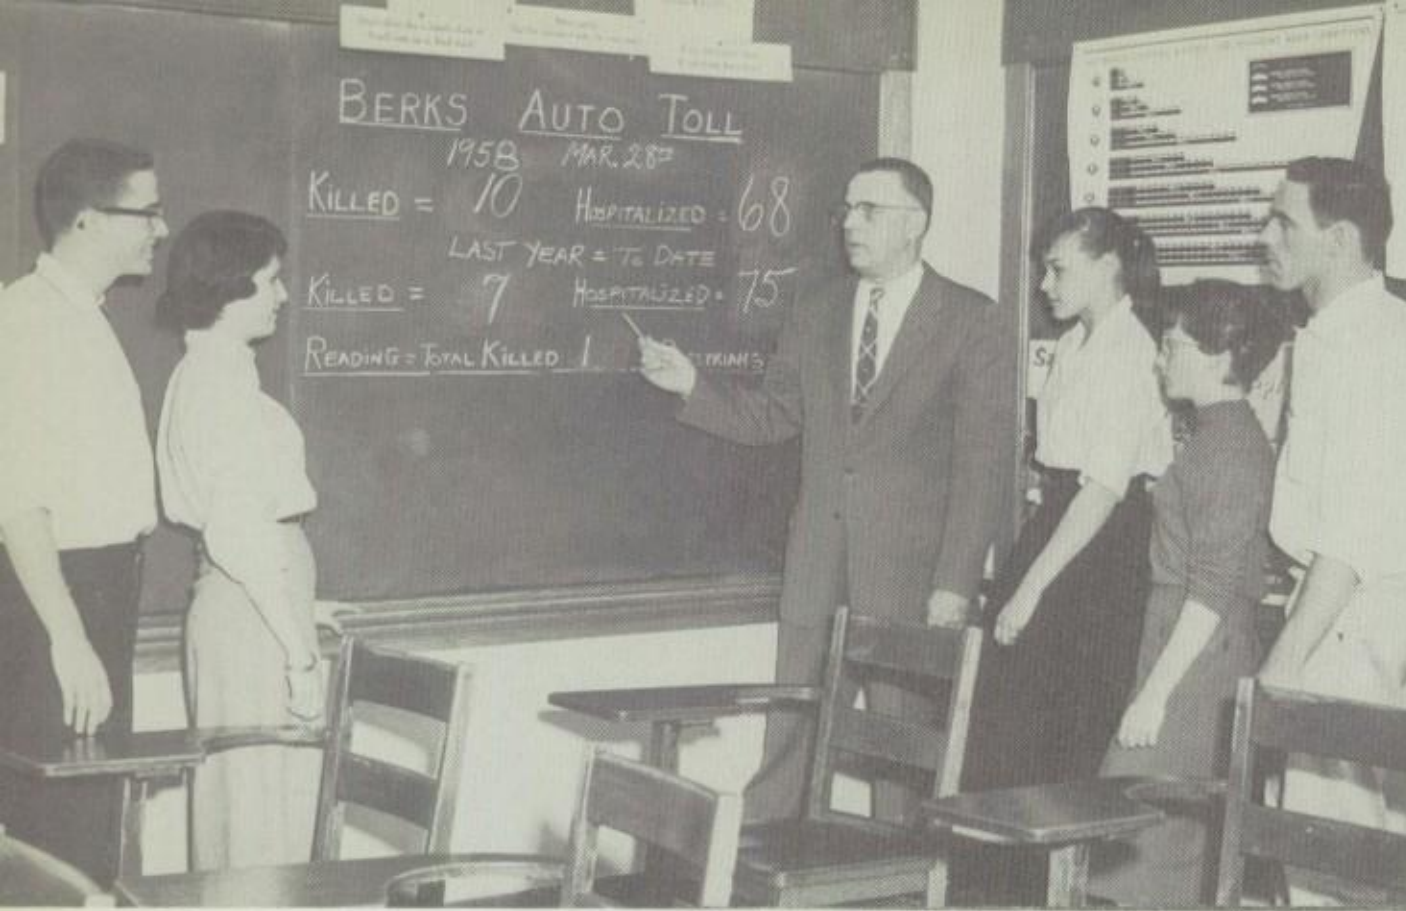

A well-planned body building program composed of calisthenics and gymnastics was an important phase of the boys' physical education curriculum.

Safety Education

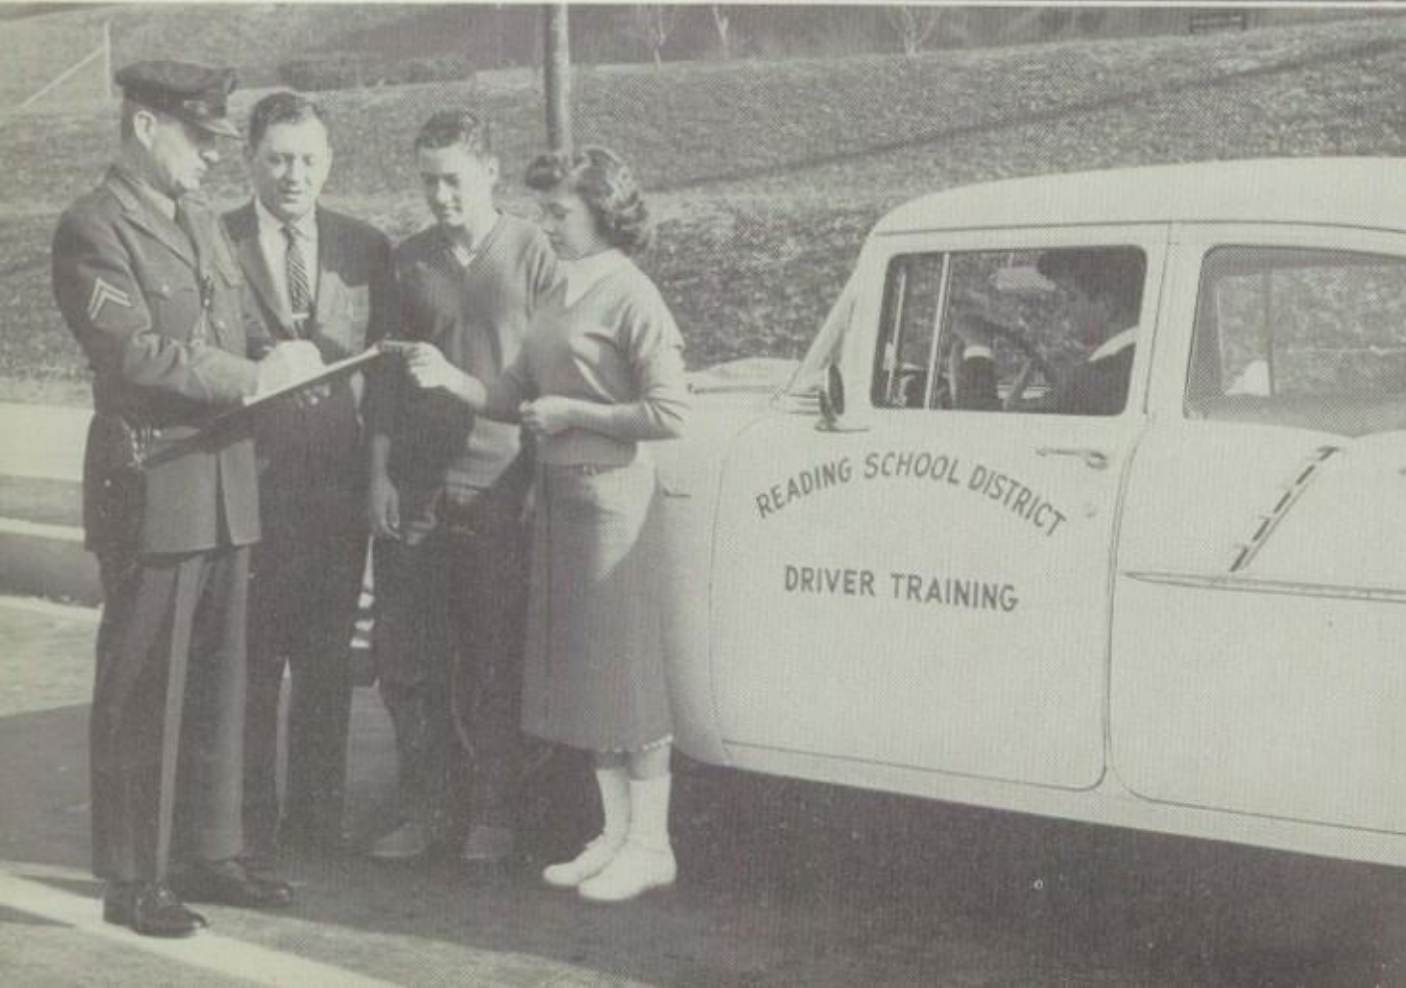

Highway . . . Home . . . General — safety essential to the students' present and future welfare constituted three special areas of safety instruction.

In addition, this department sponsored an extensive driver training program for students who wished to gain knowledge, skill, and experience for their state drivers' tests.

Safety on the road was one of the many phases emphasized in Mr. Robert Mattern's safety education classes.

Mr. Bernard Kaplan, the newest member of the safety department, explains the purpose of the reaction timer test in a driver training class.

Before giving the final driving tests, a state police officer and Mr. Charles Dunkleberger check last minute details and learners' permits.

Library Department

Head Librarian —

Miss Anna L. Stump

Assistant Librarian —

Miss Joan P. Bankes

Bold adventure! . . . Gay romance! . . . Thrilling mystery! — all were in store for students at R.H.S. when they visited our school's well-equipped library.

Besides the great variety of books for reading enjoyment — modern reference works, numerous periodicals, brochures, and instructional pamphlets were also available for student use.

Our head librarian and her new assistant, Miss Joan P. Bankes, occasionally checked book cards to determine student reading trends.

Daily circulation of home reading books at the Castle numbered about one hundred fifty books per day.

Helping students gather important data from reference books was a related service rendered by Miss Anna Stump and her staff.

Office Staff

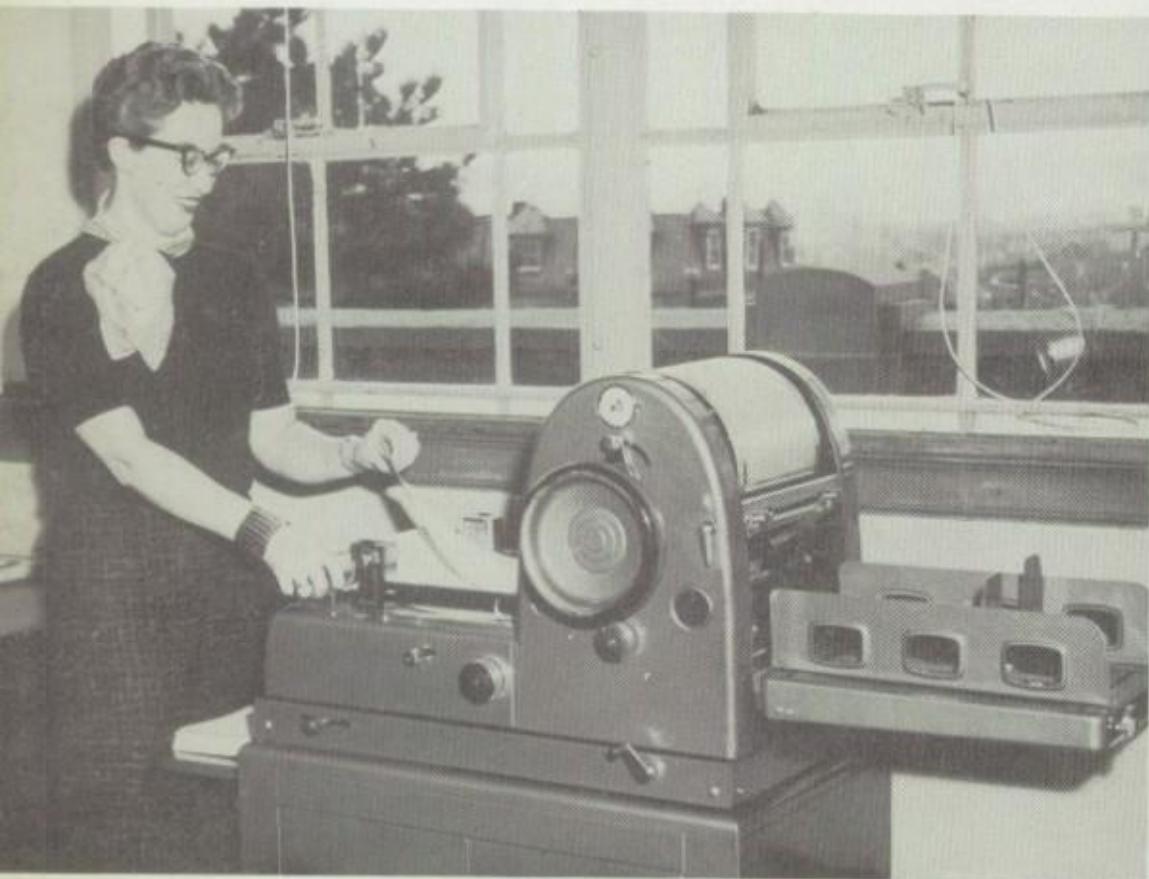

Smooth operation of administrative, faculty, and student activities was made possible through the combined services of our efficient Office Staff.

Composed of five members, this group performed all the daily routine general office work plus the regularly assigned tasks required to promote an efficient and total school program.

Throughout the day, Miss Mary Schoch was busily engaged in operating the switchboards and the public address system.

Cutting stencils and mimeographing numerous bulletins constituted the chief office duties of Mrs. Barbara Masley.

Our newly installed micro-film unit greatly aided Miss Helen Pettis in the making of official transcripts.

Athletic correspondence plus routine office tasks provided an active schedule for Miss Jean Wunder.

Office Manager

Supervising and coordinating the work of the general office staff were the main responsibilities of Mrs. Grace Wiest.

Auxiliary Personnel

Twenty-eight cafeteria workers, twenty-four members of the custodial staff plus our bookroom custodian comprised the total auxiliary personnel at R. H. S.

As a result of the daily tasks performed, the student body and faculty enjoyed maximum benefits from the school plant, its facilities, and environment.

Cafeteria Head

Ordering the food, planning the daily menus, and supervising the work of the cafeteria staff were the major duties of Mrs. Jennie Dettra, our cafeteria manager.

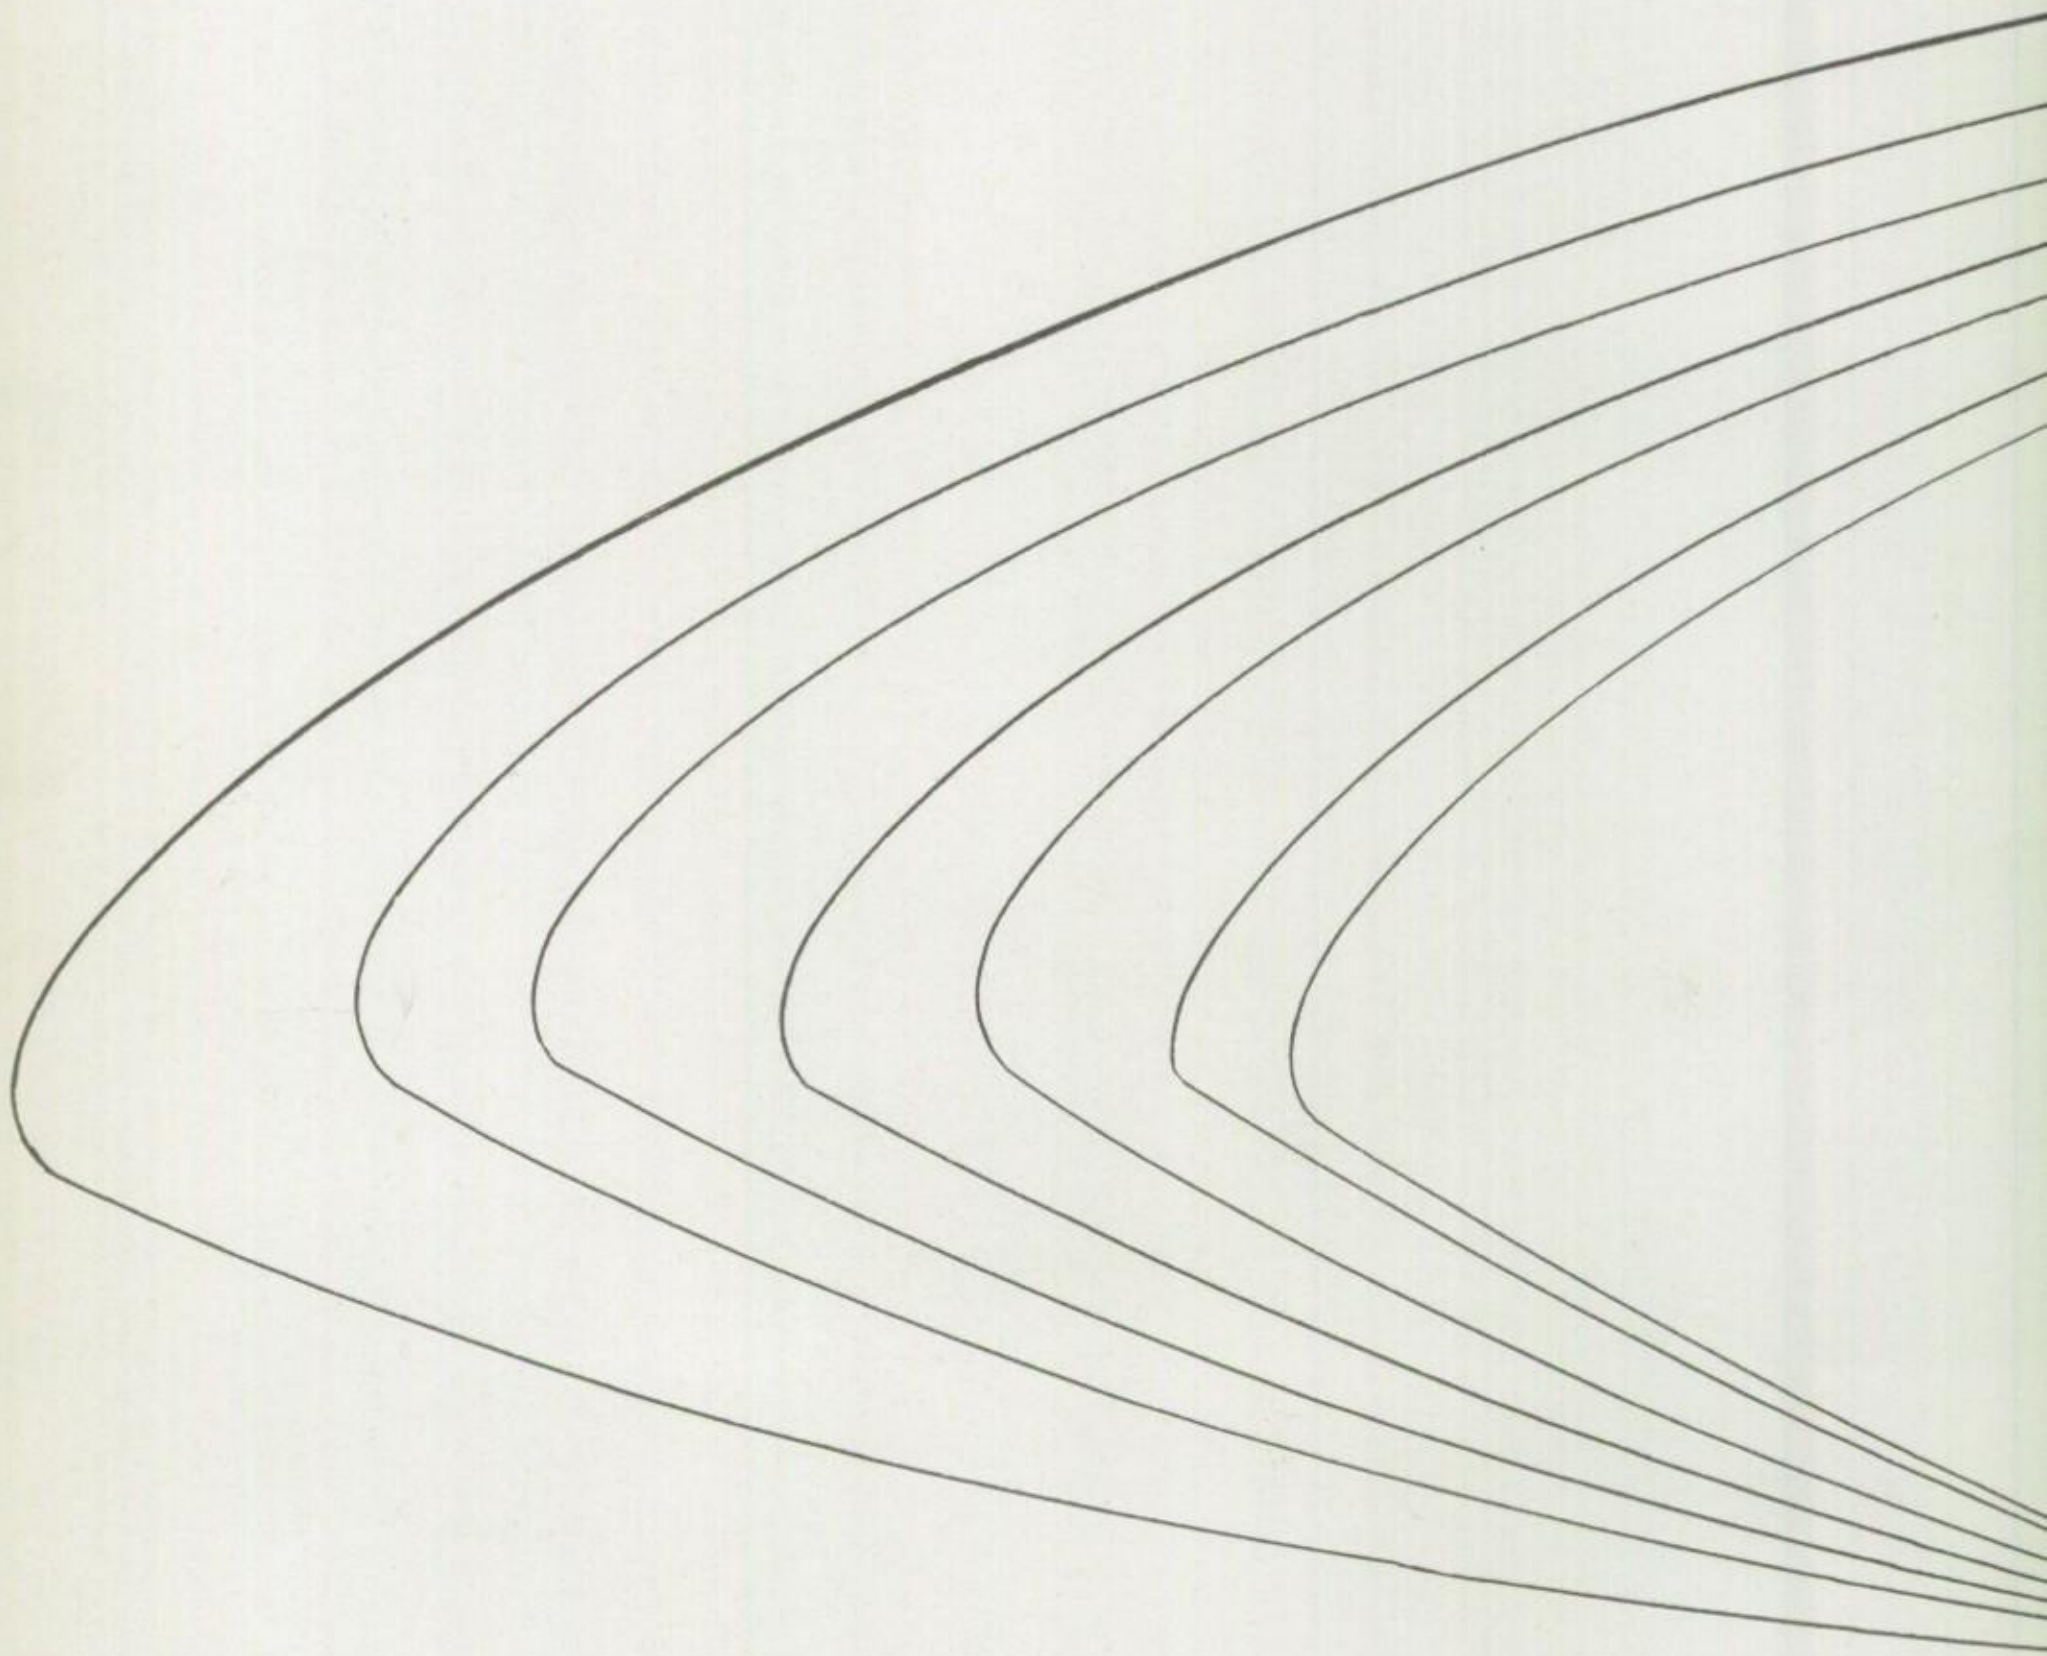

Janitorial Head

Careful maintenance and custodial care at the Castle was assured by Mr. Carl Hiester and his staff.

Bookroom Custodian

Throughout the year our bookroom custodian, Mrs. Carrie Whitehead, had the gigantic task of distributing books and supplies for nearly two-thousand students.

Message from the Class Sponsors

Your motto, "Today we learn, tomorrow we lead," is well chosen in that you have been acquiring the tools of learning over the years and will now use them to solve the problems that will confront you in this "fast-changing" world. We hope that you have developed the power to think and to reason so that you can meet the challenges in the world as it is being fashioned by science and technology.

Man's conquest of nature has brought you many comforts and luxuries, but we trust that you have learned that tangible things alone do not bring happiness, security or freedom. Leadership based on materialism can bring no permanent value. A leader must first conquer himself, and then labor for decency and justice.

It is our sincere wish that you endeavor to set a good example of honesty in dealing with your fellowmen, and thereby strive to protect your freedom and democracy.

In Memoriam

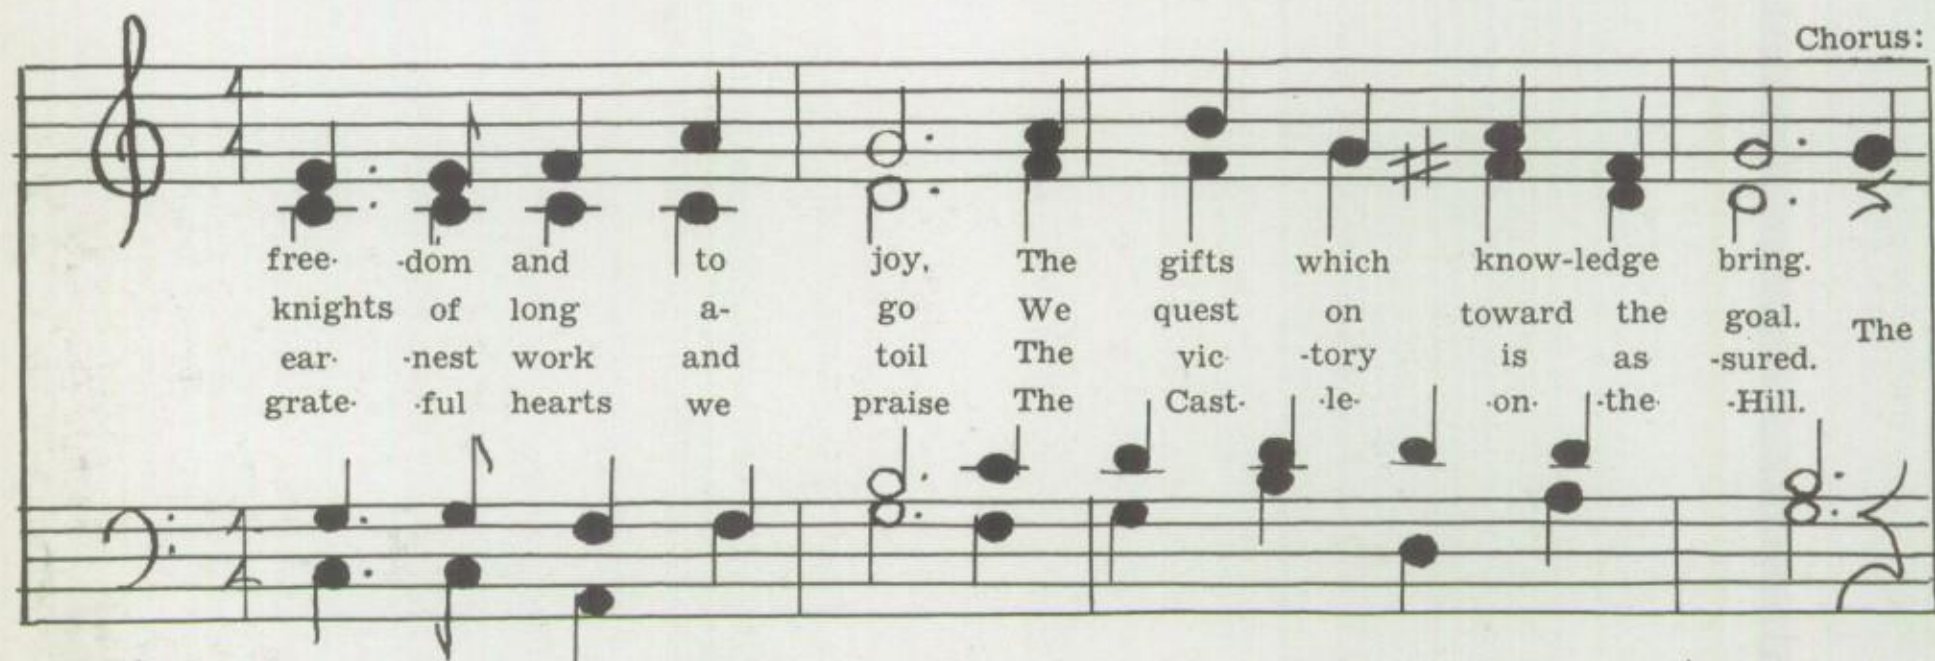

Class Song of 1958

Music by
Terry Griffith and John Killian

Words by George Carvell

1. The Cas-tle-on-the-Hill Stands wit-ness to the truth, To
2. With ea-ger mind and heart We search the new and old. As
3. The dreams are not a loss, The seek-ing not in vain, With
4. And so to Read-ing High We bid a fond a-dieu With free-dom and to joy, The gifts which know-ledge bring.

knights of long a-go We quest on toward the goal. The ear-nest work and toil The vic-tory is as-sured. The grate-ful hearts we praise The Cast-le-on-the-Hill.

Class of Fif-ty-eight Is proud to have a part, In mak-ing our great sch oo-l A cit-a-del to youth.

Senior Executive Committee

One representative from each of our nineteen homerooms plus the senior class officers and class sponsors constituted the senior administrative unit known as the Senior Executive Committee.

Under the supervision of this administrative unit, eighteen minor committees completed the detailed work required to make the total senior program a successful one.

As a result of the splendid cooperation among all groups concerned, students of the Class of "58" enjoyed a delightful and memorable senior year.

Row 1 — Sandra Shiller, Thomas Teel, Shirley Betz, Betty Pellicciotti, Anna Piehl, Judy Bennett, Judith Hepler;

Senior Committees

Announcement Committee

Chairman — Julia Zartman

Arranging ways and means for displaying, ordering, and distributing individual graduation announcements were the main responsibilities of the Senior Announcement Committee.

Seated — Lillian Cacciacarne, Julia Zartman; Standing — Lionel Carter, Grace Boyer, Robert Butzer

Name Card Committee

Chairman — Janice Dellinger

After selecting the style of name card to be used for the Class of 1958, members of the Name Card Committee supervised the ordering and distributing of the cards through the senior homeroom representatives.

Seated — Joan Schollenberger, Janice Dellinger, Richard Crow; Standing — Nancy Zapf, Barbara Pott, William Deck

Reunion Committee

Chairman — Joan Oslislo

Besides gathering a complete post card file of students of the senior class for reunion and alumni contacts, members of the Reunion Committee have the future responsibilities of determining and encouraging class reunions in years to come.

Janice Harms, Arthur Rohrbach, Joan Oslislo; Absent — Carol Palm, Randall Dietrich

Senior Committees

Program Committee

Chairman — Nancy Huber

Gathering and arranging material to be used in the program for the senior show constituted the preliminary tasks of the Senior Program Committee. Under careful faculty supervision, this committee later assisted in determining the final program design and content.

Seated — Brenda Holland, Nancy Huber; Standing — Marian Dembner, Robert Fister, Lawrence Flood

Motto Committee

Chairman — Judith Wenrich

After much research and discussion, members of the Senior Motto Committee chose seven mottoes for further consideration by the Senior Executive Committee. The motto selected by the latter group was "Today we learn; tomorrow we lead".

Judith Wenrich, Philip Paskos, Harold Dorwin, Joan Boner, Sheila Adams

Flower Committee

Chairman — Annabelle Boyer

After selecting the white carnation as the class flower, members of the Flower Committee discussed and arranged plans for the distribution of the flowers to seniors on class day and at the senior prom.

Seated — Nancy Burk, Annabelle Boyer, Phyllis Vitalo; Standing — Edward Fogelman, Gayle Hoover; Absent — Jill Yeager, Judy Yeager

Senior Committees

Welfare Committee

Chairman — Rudy Pierce

Members of the Welfare Committee served as a "sunshine committee" for senior students who were hospitalized or who experienced a bereavement within their immediate families.

The committee sent cards or flowers or both to cheer the sick or to comfort the bereaved.

Seated — Marilyn Becker, Sandra Zimmerman, Evelyn Trump, Rudy Pierce; Absent — George Fry, Ronald Roland

Orchestra Committee

Chairman — Sandra Shiller

Determining the selection of the orchestra for the Senior Prom was the main responsibility of the Orchestra Committee.

After receiving sealed bids from five orchestral groups, the committee selected Saxie Schollenberger to play for the Senior Prom at the Reading Country Club on Thursday, May 29, 1958.

Seated — Leonard Pichini, Sandra Shiller, Darlene Fetterman; Standing — Ronald Geiger, George Frey, Kerry Goodhart, Peter Pepe

Finance Committee

Chairman — Anna Piehl

Central control of expenditures for senior class activities was vested in the Finance Committee.

Other senior committees desiring funds for their projects had to receive the approval of this central unit before funds were made available to the committees making the requests.

Seated — Michael Lutz, Anna Piehl, Gloria Nagle; Standing — Nelson Cohen, Whitney Mendelsohn; Absent — Roger Cranos

Senior Committees

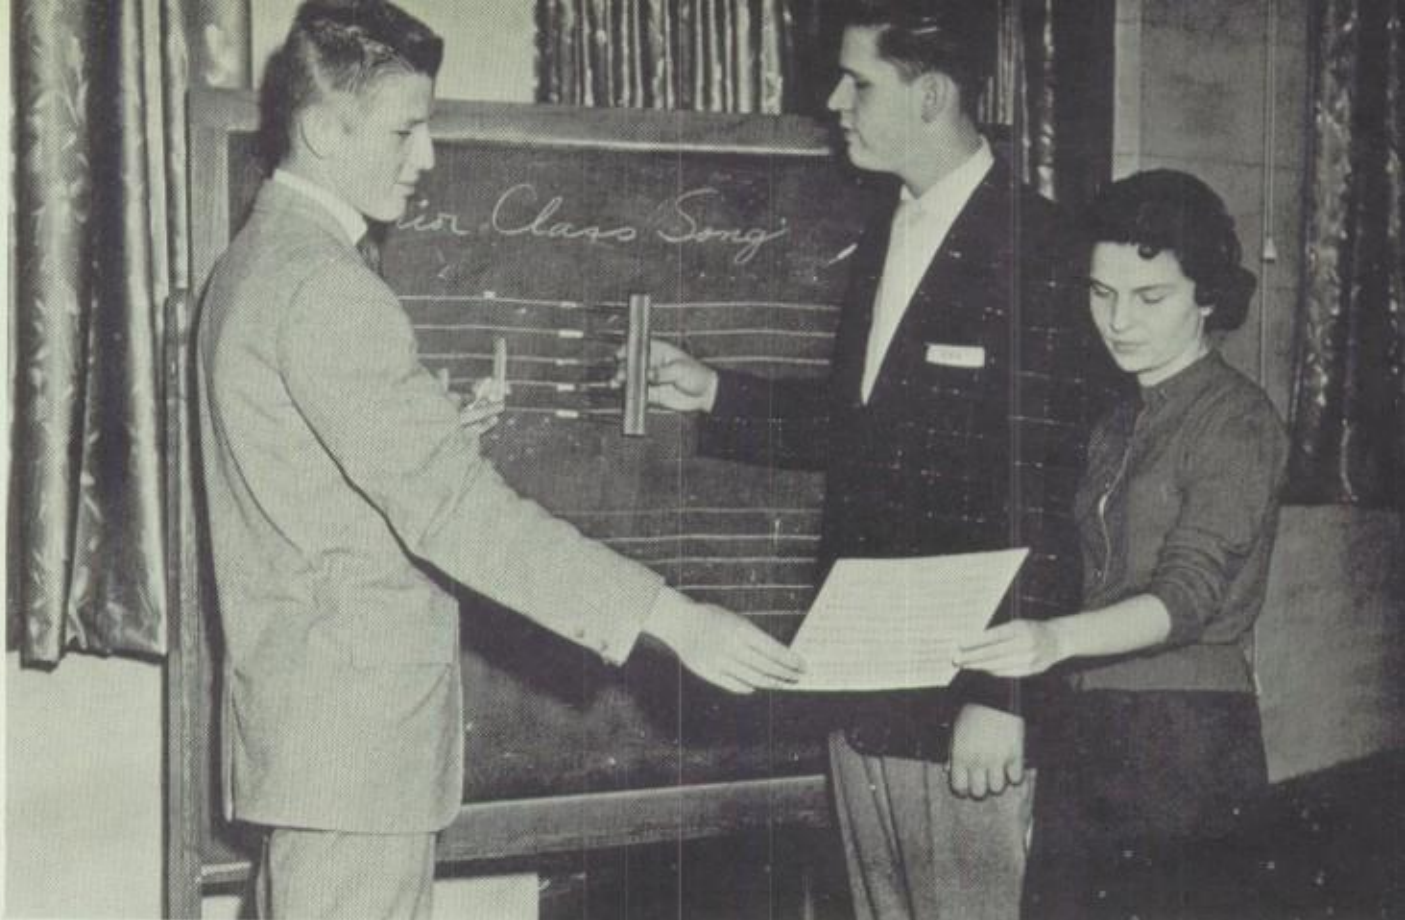

Class Song Committee

Chairman — George Carvell

Members of the harmony and theory classes, working closely with Mr. J. Carl Borelli and the Senior Song Committee, planned and selected the lyrics and musical score for the class song.

The words were written by George Carvell; the music by Terry Griffith and John Killian.

George Carvell, John Killian, Janice Cutrona; Absent — Janice Weaver

Publicity and Ticket Committee

Chairman—Marilyn Moyer

Providing publicity for the senior class dance, the senior show and the prom were part of the services rendered by the Publicity and Ticket Committee.

Arranging for the printing, tabulation, and distribution of the tickets for the senior show and prom constituted the remainder of the committee's services.

Sitting — Marilyn Moyer, Sue Ann Canto; Standing — Del Roy Shein, Joelle Bertolet, Karen Pike, Roger Handorf

Senior Show Committee

Chairman — Nancy Miller

After considering and discussing numerous plays, the Senior Show Committee selected a senior play with interest and appeal — "Girl Crazy", a delightful musical comedy.

Distribution of play booklets and related materials were additional services rendered by committee members.

Sitting—Nancy Jean Miller, Sherry Milones, Thomas Bamford; Standing — Linda Weyandt, Carolyn Wonderly, James Adam, Patricia Worsnup

Senior Committees

Refreshment Committee

Chairman — Patricia Sieber

Members of the Refreshment Committee planned, obtained, and served refreshments for the senior class dance, class day, and the senior prom.

In addition, members of the group made the necessary arrangements for efficient and adequate distribution of the refreshments at each of the social events.

Seated — Jeanette Snyder, Lynda Smith; Standing — Sandra Dautrich, Judy Wiedenhammer, Anthony Penkauskas, Sandra Schuler, Lorraine Sadowski, Patricia Sieber

Decorations Committee

Chairman — Judith Hepler

After the themes for the various social activities were selected, the Decoration Committee arranged attractive and well-designed decorations according to the nature of each theme.

Besides decorating the school gym for the class dance and class day, the committee decorated the ballroom of the Reading Country Club for the senior prom.

Seated—Ann Gagliano, Yvonne Hahn, Constance Graff; Standing — Robert Fisher, Ronald Farrell; Absent — Judith Hepler, Carol Conway

Prom Committee

Chairman — Jeanne Swope

Selecting the site and theme for the senior prom were the chief functions of the Prom Committee.

Early in the year, the committee announced that the prom would be held at the Reading Country Club, but the nature of the theme would be withheld until the evening of the gala occasion.

Joan Hiller, Richard Walters, Carol Deibert, Jeanne Swope; Absent — Peggy Savage, Norman Bautsch

Senior Committees

Class Day Committee

Chairman — John Caltagirone

Wholesome activities enjoyed by the senior class on Friday, May 16, 1958 were made possible by the careful planning of the Class Day Committee.

A special senior luncheon, an entertaining assembly program, plus delightful group activities in the gym highlighted the day's events.

Beverly Hoke, Gertrude Danneberg, John Caltagirone, Elizabeth Pellicioti; Absent — Kathleen Sands, Michael Carpin, Scott Potteiger

Baccalaureate Committee

Chairman — Shirley Betz

Members of the Baccalaureate Committee assisted the administration in the planning and arranging of the stage setting and floral displays for the baccalaureate services.

In addition, committee members helped the seniors to become acquainted with processional and recessional procedures during baccalaureate rehearsals.

Seated — Joan Schollenberger, Shirley Betz; Standing — Carol Clemens, Nancy Zapf, Sandra Zimmerman; Absent — Miriam Obold

Commencement Committee

Chairman — Judith Bennett

Our Commencement Committee functioned as a student group which helped to prepare individual diplomas for distribution by proof reading senior names, placing each diploma in its leather case, and boxing them for final homeroom distribution.

Members of the committee were also available for emergency service during the planning of the commencement activities.

Girl Crazy

Danny Churchill, an eastern playboy, is in quite a predicament when he learns that he is going to be sent to Clusterville, Arizona, by his father in order to take his mind off women. He finds, to his dismay, that Clusterville is a town without women — thus minus interest.

However this does not bother Danny for long as he turns his ranch into a dude ranch where he meets Molly, a post office clerk. He tries to teach her eastern ways of living, while she, in turn, tries to change his ways to those of the West.

Suspense, humor, excitement, and of course, romance are all mixed into this play written by Ira Gershwin. Some of the famous songs written by George Gershwin, for this show were "Embraceable You", "I'm Bidin' My Time", "I've Got Rhythm", and "But Not For Me".

Treachery unfolds as Geiber's hanging is urged by the true culprit.

Gaily attired dancers added sparkle to the show.

Seniors ranking in the upper third of their class were eligible for consideration for membership in the N.H.S.

Faculty members, using a five-point rating scale, then evaluated candidates on the bases of leadership, character, and service.

Fifteen per cent of the seniors who received the highest combined ratings were inducted into the organization.

Student Council

Sponsor — Mr. Clinton D. Getz

Student Council served as a special service unit which helped the faculty and administration to promote high ideals of student citizenship in curricular and extra-curricular activities of the school.

Officers of Student Council prepare the agenda for the next council meeting.

Suzanne Lloyd, vice-president; Janice Harms, secretary; Kerry Kissinger, president

Before recommending action, members of the executive body of Student Council carefully analyzed and discussed student requests.

Assembly Chaplains and Chairmen

Sponsor — Miss Grace W. Trout

Adding to the success of our assemblies were the services rendered by our competent and capable Assembly Chaplains and Chairmen.

Reading the Bible and leading the student body in prayer highlighted the responsibilities of the Assembly Chaplains.

Introducing the guests of honor, leading the salute to the Flag, and making announcements related to the assembly program were the main duties performed by the Assembly Chairmen.

With grace and dignity, our Assembly Chaplains opened our assembly programs.

Linda Fisher, Jane Beitzel, Linda Weyandt

Program sequence in our assemblies was capably directed by our competent Assembly Chairmen.

Thomas Bamford, Carolyn Stocker, Thomas Teel, Paul Balson

Assembly Organists

Sponsor —
Mr. Theodore C. Walker

Besides providing the organ melodies for regular assemblies, the Assembly Organists played musical interludes at the evening lectures, the Evening of Music, and other special occasions.

Our talented Assembly Organists gather for another rehearsal.

John Krick, Gloria O'Neill, Miriam Obold

Stagehands

Sponsors — Mr. J. Kenneth Conley
Mr. Richard I. Boyer

Members of the wood crew constructed and erected stage scenery, changed the sets, and placed various types of stage equipment and properties according to the demands of each assembly program.

The electric crew operated the motion picture and slide projectors, and provided effective stage lighting and proper sound amplification for special assembly features, various musical groups, and dramatic productions.

No matter how large or small the task . . . our wood crew was ready to serve.

Kneeling — George Cheri, Irwin Lengel, Irvin Grauf; Standing — Robert Michael, Barry Huyett, Bruce Gaston, Richard Faust

Speaking in Public

Sponsors—Mr. O. James Davis
Mr. Robert Barrett

"Speaking in Public" was a non-credit extra-curricular course offered to students who wished to develop and acquire competence in oral expression for social, industrial, and professional life.

Among the many points emphasized in the course since its formation at the beginning of the second semester were the importance of the speaker's poise, sincerity, vitality, and the logical organization and effective presentation of ideas.

Workshop Players

Sponsors—Miss Gloria Rodgers

Mr. William Burkhart

Workshop Players was a chartered organization which promoted a dramatics program for the benefit of students who were interested in specializing in the thespian art and its related fields.

As a result of participating in the organization's activities, members of the group gained valuable knowledge, skill, and experience in acting, character make-up, and in other fundamentals of play production.

Officers of the organization review an advance copy of their first play.

Judy Alesin, vice-president; Judy Hepler, president; Paul Balson, treasurer; Claire Bernheiser, secretary

An important phase of the workshop program was providing numerous opportunities for students to learn the art of applying make-up.

Varsity Football

Head Coach — Mr. Anthony Stopper
Assistant Coach — Mr. Norbert Billinger

Lack of veteran strength, a small team turnout, plus four postponements, a game cancellation, and sickness constituted the obstacles facing our team and its mentors this season. In spite of these negative factors, the Red Knights managed to post a 3-6 log for the season.

Hopes of winning the opener were ruined as the Red Rovers of Easton handed the Stoppermen a 32-6 setback. Returning to home grounds, the Knights pleased local fans by overpowering a fast Steelton eleven 13-7. The Knights then journeyed to Harrisburg where John Harris turned them back 27-0. A wave of sickness sweeping the local area caused a postponement of the next game with Williamsport to a later date. The Bethlehem Hurricanes, playing the Knights after a one day postponement because of rain, used a strong aerial attack to down the Knights 19-7. The next game, scheduled to be played at York, was cancelled because of a flu-like disease which forced the closing of all our schools. For their fifth clash the Knights met title-bound Lancaster at Albright Stadium. After a three day postponement because of rain, they played and the Knights lost 21-12. Host to the Knights in the next game was Lebanon and after another three day rain postponement, we defeated the Cedars 13-7. William Penn arrived to supply the next opposition and they defeated our gridmen, 20-0. The Knights' next tilt was the postponed Williamsport game. Although Reading played a hard game, last year's C.P.C. champs made the Knights their eighth victim of the season with a 32-12 win. The Knights' final game was the annual Turkey Day battle with the Crimson Tide of Pottsville. Heavy rains didn't dampen the spirit of the Knights as they ended the season in fine style with a 12-0 verdict.

Junior Varsity Football

Coaches — Mr. Norbert Billinger

Three cancellations due to sickness and continuous inclement weather reduced the junior varsity grid card from eight to five games.

Opening the season on home grounds against a new opponent, our J.V. gridmen used fast running plays to crush Whitehall Township 36-6. In their second fray, Reading defeated a weak Phoenixville eleven 20-7. Nearby Governor Mifflin provided the opposition for our Castlemen in the third contest. After four quarters of hard-fought football, the Knights finally edged their foe by a 6-0 score.

Because of a flu-like sickness spreading in the local area, the game with Muhlenberg had to be cancelled. Similar conditions and bad weather forced another cancellation — this time with the Lancaster eleven.

Facing no foes for a month as a result of the two cancellations, the Knights were eager to return to action to earn their fourth consecutive victory. Playing host to the Pottsville squad, the J.V. gridmen scored in the first three periods of play to blank the visitors 19-0.

Rain again interrupted the junior Knights' schedule as their game with Lebanon was cancelled.

In the only away game of their curtailed season, the Knights suffered their lone defeat when the boys from Milton Hershey surprised our Castlemen with a fast offense and strong defense to take the Knights' final grid contest by a score of 25-6.

Coach Roland P. Kyle, starting his third season as mentor of the Reading High School soccer squad, faced the problem of developing a small turnout of fifteen boys into a winning aggregation. In spite of this slim response, eight veterans of last year's squad provided enough seasoned talent to enable the Knights to earn a commendable 6-2-2 record.

Opening the season against Daniel Boone High School, later crowned County League Champions, the Knights lost by a score of 1-0, as a result of a penalty kick in the last few minutes of play. Dale Haggerty, senior forward lineman, became the season's only casualty when he received a broken ankle in this contest. Schuylkill Valley was next to challenge the Castlemen on the 11th and Pike pitch and this time the Kylemen won 2-0.

Next to fall prey to the Castlemen were the booters from Hamburg as Reading shutout the visitors 1-0. The Knights then blanked the toemen from Penn Manor 2-0, thereby registering their third straight shutout victory. Nearby Mt. Penn played host to Reading in the Knights' first away game of the season, but the talented lads from the Castle edged the Mountaineers 1-0. In the next contest, a stubborn Fleetwood eleven managed to hold the Red and Black to a 1-1 stalemate. Taking on Myerstown, District No. 3 titlist, the Knights fought back from a 0-2 deficit, to gain a 2-2 tie. In the final home tilt, Lancaster was easily conquered by a score of 4-0.

An outbreak of the flu-like illness forced the cancellation of the match with Girard College.

Norristown, participating in soccer competition for only two years, provided the next challenge to our Knights. Stiff opposition was finally overcome and the Knights won 2-0. Playing their third match in four days, Bethlehem, the defending District No. 1 champions, proved too strong for Reading and as a result edged our squad in the season's final 1-0.

With the return of thirteen turf veterans, Mr. James McIntyre looked forward to a favorable cross country season. The Knights, however, failed to come up to pre-season expectations as they compiled a disappointing record of one victory and eight losses.

Our speedsters opened the season against Pottstown, a new opponent. Traveling to foreign soil, the Castlemen were defeated by a score of 17-38. Journeying next to Norristown, the Red and Black again went down to defeat, 21-34. Williamsport, who later copped the Central Penn Conference League Championship, spoiled the home opener as the Castlemen suffered their third straight loss of the campaign, 15-40. Things picked up, as Lancaster narrowly edged the Knights by a 23-32 score. Led by John Rossignoli, Reading finally succeeded in winning their first meet in two years as they outran Central Dauphin with a final score of 22 to 33. Rossignoli also set the fastest time of the year by running the two and a half mile course in 13:44. Reading High Harriers failed to win a single meet in the remaining four meets. Lebanon and William Penn took two from the thinclads on the road 17-38 and 26-29, respectively, while Mt. Carmel and Pottsville hung up victories by identical score of 20-35. The final meet of the year with Coatesville was cancelled, because of the flu-epidemic.

Reading's fastest runner, John Rossignoli received a bronze medal for placing twelfth in the All-Conference Run at Pottsville. The flu-epidemic made it impossible for us to compete in the District No. 3 Run at Venzke's Golf Range and also the PIAA State Finals at University Park.

In a post-season contest with Exeter Township High, Reading's JV cross country squad lost by a close score of 26-29.

After winning Central Pennsylvania Conference and District No. 3 laurels for the last three years, the Knights aimed to clinch their fourth title, but a determined York five shattered the Knights' dream of setting a four-year conference and district reign.

In pre-Conference warfare, Reading lost the opening contest to Norristown by a score of 57-49, losing in the last two minutes of play. The Horinemen initiated the home campaign with a win over Bethlehem, present District No. 11 champs. The Red and Black then overpowered our cross-town foe, Central Catholic, 46-26. Lower Merion also tasted defeat on the Northwest hardwoods as our gallant basketekers downed the visitors, 52-37. Traveling to Allentown, the Canaries edged Reading 58-54 in a closely fought game. In the annual American Business Club's Eyeglass Fund game, the Knights soundly defeated a powerful Plymouth High School quintet, 53-37.

Beginning CPC combat, the Castlemen were shaken by a defense-minded William Penn five 38-31, but our Knights rebounded by winning the next five games, beating Lebanon, Steelton, Lancaster, Central Dauphin, and John Harris by very convincing scores. Our Knights ran into the Big Bearcat from York, and Reading's vision of a first half title were dispelled in a 60-47 loss. The Knights came back quickly though, trouncing Milton Hershey 64-32 to finish in second place behind York.

The Castlemen opened the second half of Conference play against William Penn and this time downed the Tigers 50-29. Mr. Horine's charges reeled off five more victories in preparation for the deciding York meeting. Before an overflow audience at Northwest, the Bearcats swept by our valiant Knights 60-51. As far as the hometown fans were concerned, the season was over. Nevertheless, the Knights returned to the win column by edging the rough Milton Hershey quintet, 45-43, to close the season with a 17-5 log.

J. V. Basketball

Coach—Mr. Max Missbach

In his third year as J.V. coach, Mr. Max Missbach led his J.V. squad to a second place finish in Central Pennsylvania Conference standings with a 12-4 record. In non-conference competition, our Junior Knights registered four wins and one loss making their seasonal log 16 and 5.

Although the Baby Knights were defeated in their opener with Norristown, they won their next four non-conference games, and then six straight in conference play. The Red Knights then suffered a slight slump winning only one of their next four contests. Recovering from their brief setback, the Knights ended the season with a strong finish winning all but one of their final six games. The highlight of the J.V.'s season was when the R.H.S. Quintet defeated the J.V. league leading York Bearcats 52-48.

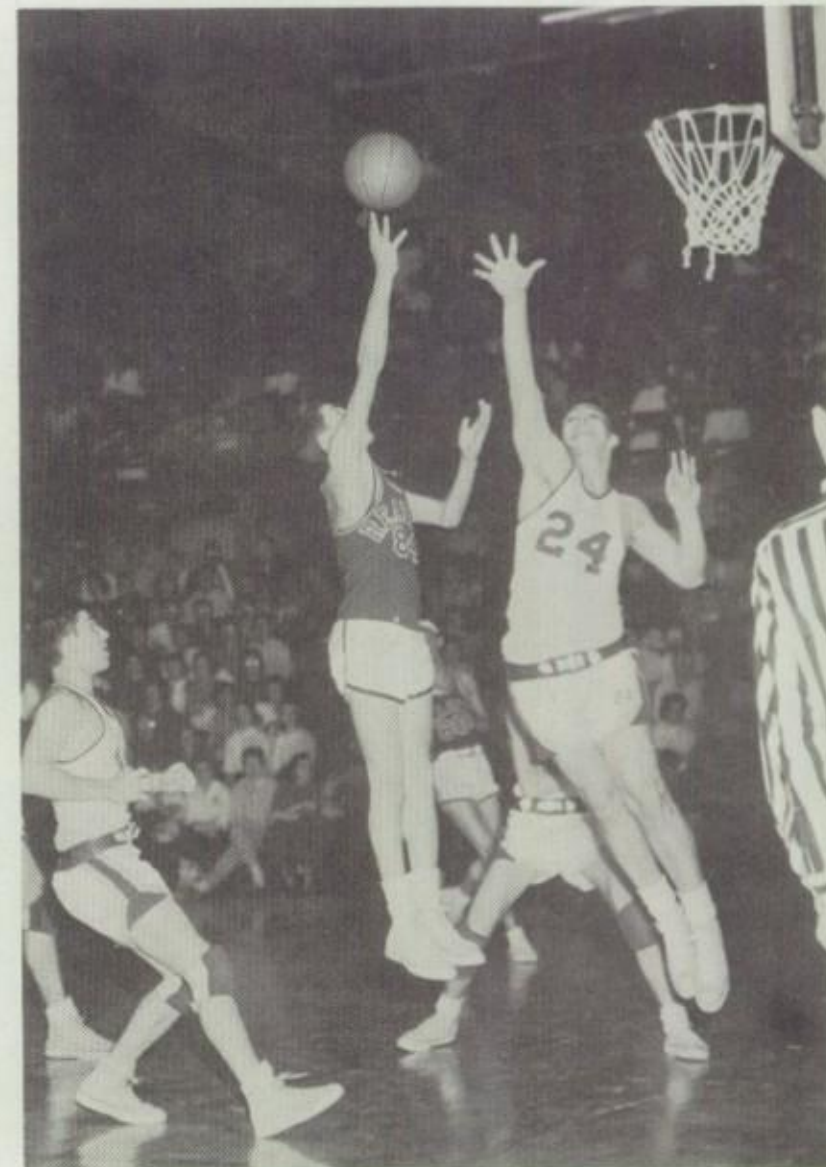

Top performances on the J.V.'s were turned in by Joe Acker with his brilliant playmaking, Bill Walters on the boards, James Krick and Mervin Wertz with their consistent scoring, and the fine overall playing of James Moyer. These players could well prove to be the nucleus for a future varsity team.

This season Bill Foltz's matmen had to face the same problem they had to face last year — good individual performances, but a lack of general team strength. They did, however, improve on last year's record by winning six and losing only three conference matches for a fourth place in District No. 3 competition. The addition of one non-conference loss brought their final record to 6 and 4.

At the end of the season, the team produced five winners in the Sectional Meet. In the District No. 3 championships, these same wrestlers succeeded in capturing second place honors. All but one of these grapplers continued on to take third place in the Southeastern Regionals.

During the regular season matman William Sauer posted an undefeated record of ten wins and no losses. In addition, Joseph Gilmore set the phenomenal record of pinning fifteen straight opponents over a two year period; thirteen in succession during this season. Other standouts included Frank Lopresto with nine wins and one tie, and Kenneth Thomason with nine wins and one loss.

Swimming

Coach—Mr. Benjamin Focht

With only four men returning from last year's squad, the Knights lacked the necessary depth and experience to register a single victory, and as a result the Castle mermen ended the season with a 0-9 record. A severe snowstorm at the end of the season forced the cancellation of the Norristown meet, thereby limiting the schedule to nine contests.

In spite of the dismal season, outstanding individual performances were given by Bert Jones in the freestyle and Tom Westley and Dan Tranovich in the backstroke. Seniors Nils Erickson and Larry McDevitt and underclassmen Dick Keiser, Lloyd Brady, and Mike Johnson also displayed impressive aquatic skills throughout the season.

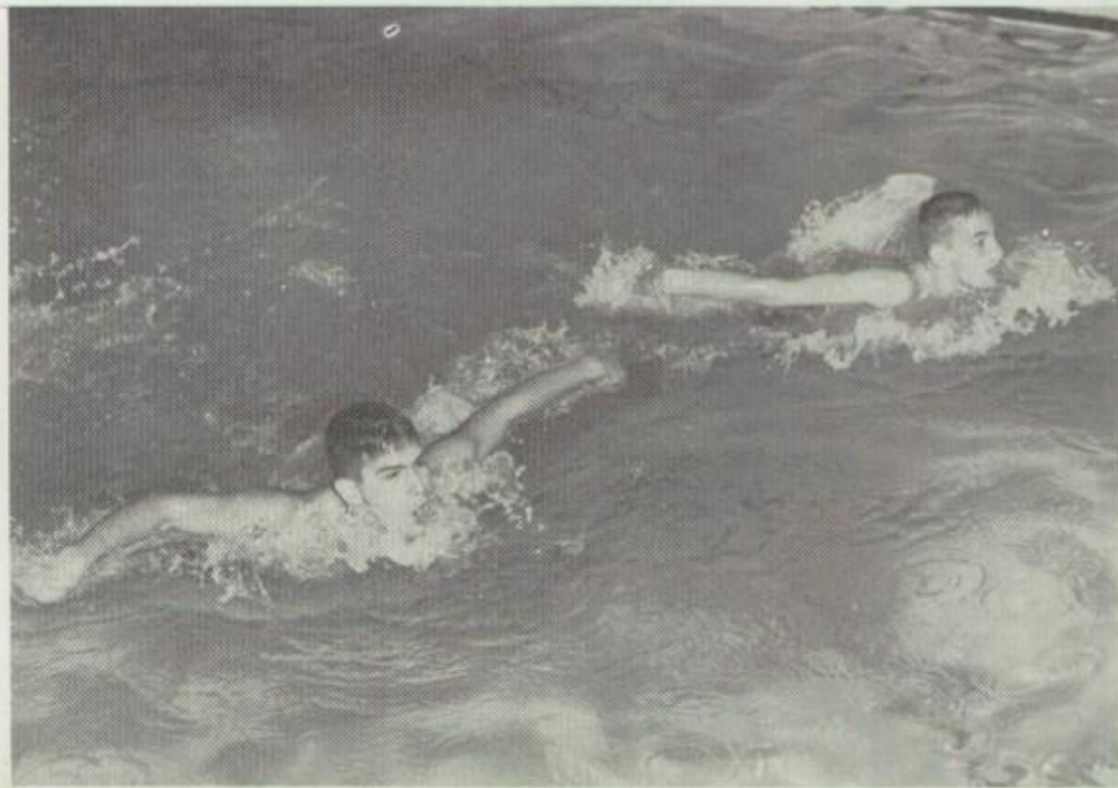

This year R.H.S. had no entrants in the District No. 3 and Eastern Regional meets, and therefore were ineligible for the P.I.A.A. State Finals.

As a result of the small team turnout, Coach James McIntyre had to base his hopes for a successful tennis season on the veteran experience of Roger Handorf and Edward Fogelman, and the promising strength of Leonard Pichini, William Ruoff, Garran Seidel, Barry Woerner, Kenneth Barnett and Gilbert Zale.

In preparing for the stiff tennis schedule for the 1958 season, members of the squad practiced daily on the asphalt courts on the west side of the campus of the high school to develop accuracy, drive, and speed.

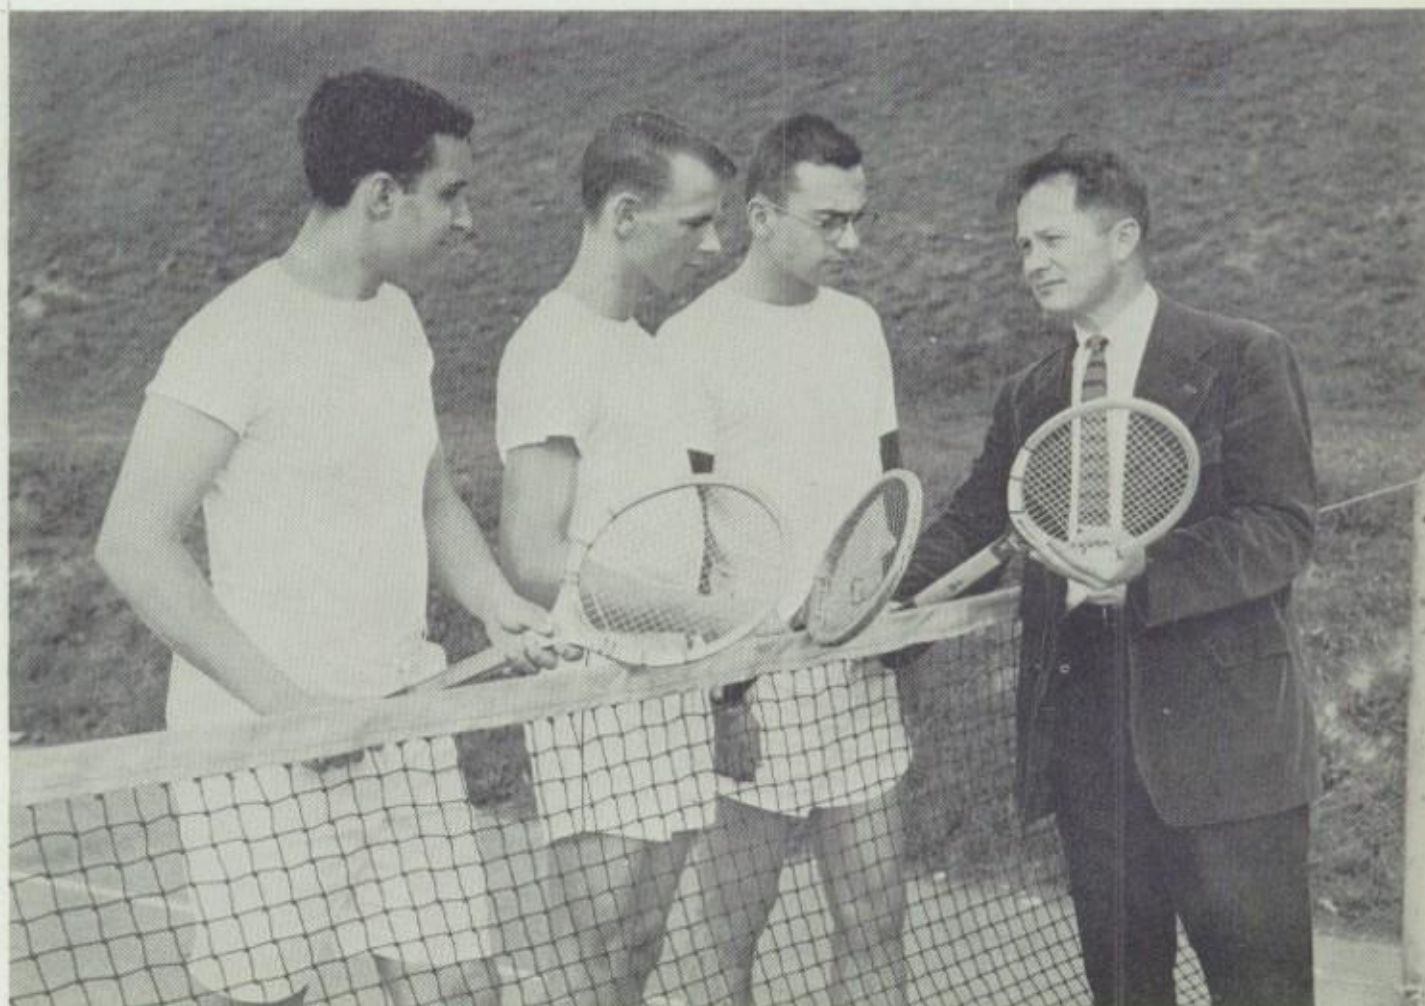

Teams scheduled to meet our R.H.S. court men throughout the season include those from the Nazareth, Bethlehem, Allentown, and Easton high schools of the East Penn League, and an independent squad from nearby Wyomissing High School.

Members of the Reading tennis team slated to participate in the preliminary District No. 3 meet in Lancaster include William Ruoff and Roger Handorf in the singles, and Edward Fogelman and Barry Woerner in the doubles.

Varsity Baseball

Head Coach — Mr. Charles Dunkelberger

Asst. Coach — Mr. Norbert Billinger

Ninety-two candidates responded to the initial call for varsity baseball tryouts at George Field. After a series of workouts, twenty-three diamondmen were selected for the varsity squad.

Those vying for positions in the infield included Norm Bautsch at first, Dick Walters and Nick Calabria at the pivot sack, Paul Iaeger at shortstop, and Jack Crawford at third. Barry Distasio, Joe DeLancy, Michael Hauck, Albert Kalinowski, and William Dallessandro tried for positions in the outfield. Pitching duties were divided between Barry Schollenberger, Jim Brakin, Dave Mann, Dave Becker, Dick Hummel, Donald Seidel, and Jim Wentzel. Bill Seyfert and Gary Wentzel alternated behind the plate.

As in past years, the Red Knights started their season with a series of exhibition games. Muhlenberg and Wilson High Schools of Berks County and Whitehall Township High School of Lehigh County were the non-league opponents in these contests. Following these tune-up games, the Knights prepared to capture their seventh Eastern Pennsylvania League championship in the last eleven years. Previous to this season, Castle baseball squads won East Penn League championships in the years of 1947, 1948, 1950, 1951, 1952, and 1954.

With a well balanced team of veterans and new talent, our coaches look forward to improving last year's ten win and four loss record and to upholding the traditions of good play and good sportsmanship set by former teams.

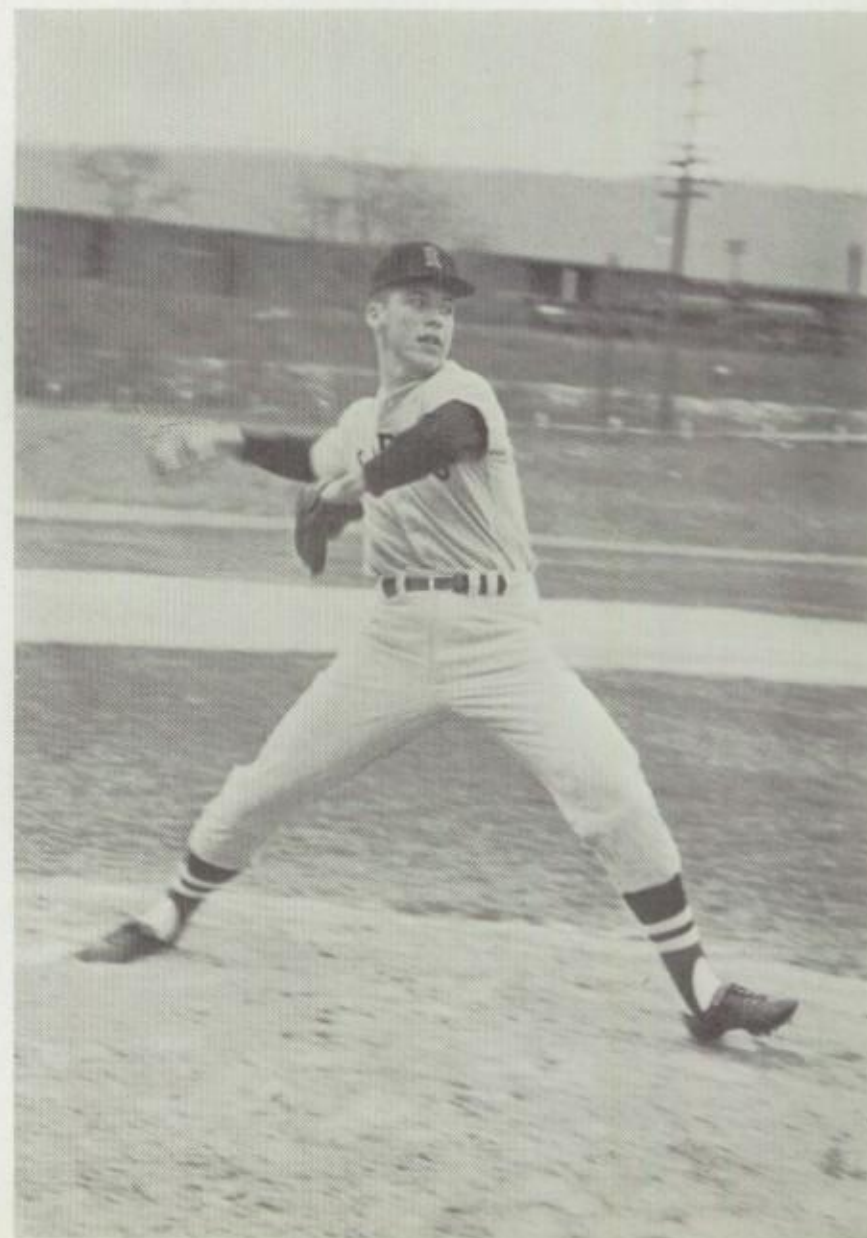

Coach Charles Dunkelberger gives Richard Walters some valuable tips on the speedy execution of the double play.

Junior Varsity Baseball

Coach — Mr. Harrison Stump

Although the junior Knights did not play in an organized baseball league, they faced a group of teams which included some of the county's stiffest competition. Listed in the junior varsity's schedule of twelve games with seven schools were three contests with the Hamburg squad, two encounters each with the Kutztown, Twin Valley, and Wyomissing schools, and single contests with the Exeter, Mt. Penn, and Fleetwood squads.

Members of the Red Knights' team scheduled to fill the various diamond positions throughout the season included Pete Reiniger, Don Williams, Bob Eshbach, Michael Madeira, Al Reppert, and Bob Walters in the infield with Thomas DeLong, Bob Erisman, Russ Hoffman, and Bob Adams in the outfield. Slated to share the mound duties were Carlo Margharito and Dick Hummel with Russell Coldren and Louis DeAngelis sharing catching honors.

Serving as coach of the junior Knights for his third year, Coach Harrison Stump looked forward to having his 1958 team improve the seasonal logs of his squads of the past two years, and at the same time develop a strong nucleus of promising players for next year's varsity baseball squad.

During spring training, Coach Harrison Stump helps Peter Reiniger develop accuracy in throwing the ball for infield plays.

Field Events

Coach — Mr. Roland P. Kyle

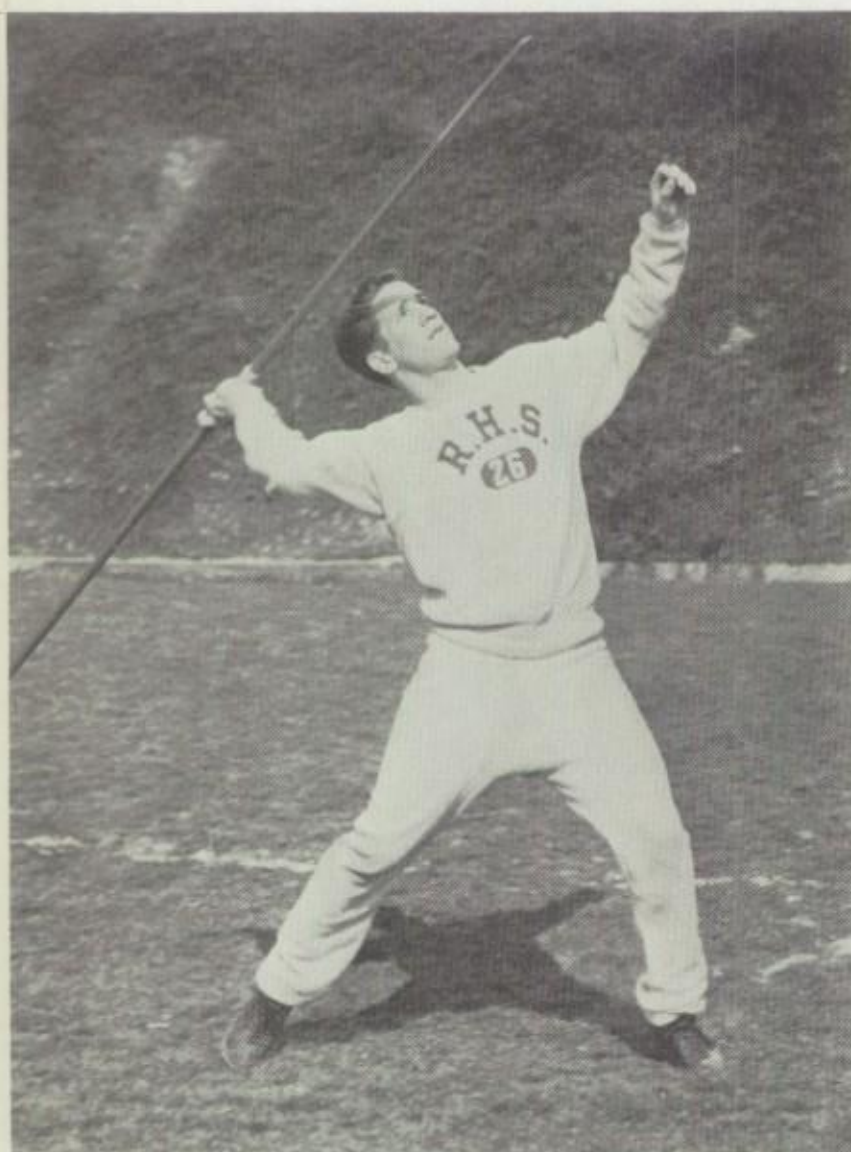

Track activities were divided into two main divisions, namely field events and running events.

In the field events, height or distance constituted the major points of emphases. Included in this classification were high jumping, pole vaulting, and the throwing of the shot put, discus, and javelin.

Candidates showing promise of giving outstanding performances in the field events were Larry Funk and Michael Brown in the high jump; Frank Lopresto, Peter Feick, and George Fry in the pole vault; Stewart McAlvage, Lloyd Oudinot, Thomas Strahan, and Richard Klein in the shot put; Lloyd Oudinot, Kenneth Thomason, Stewart McAlvage, and Dallas Zeiber, in the discus, and Bertram Jones, Pete Gable, Raymond Sikowski and Thomas Coleman in the javelin thrusts.

In the Bethlehem meet, Lloyd Oudinot established a record discus thrust of 142 feet and 6¾ inches.

Javelin artist, Bertram Jones, improved his distance marks through constant practice.

Frank Lopresto's skill provided stiff opposition to opponents in the pole vaulting contests.

Running Events

Coach — Mr. Anthony P. Stopper

Broad jump, low and high hurdles, the 100, 220, 440, 880 yard dashes, and the mile run constituted the seven speed or endurance activities in the running events program.

Cindermen slated to see plenty of action during the season were Don Davis, and Sam Richardson in the broad jump; Joe Gilmore, Don Davis, and Harold Johnson in the 100 and 200 yard dashes; Charles Jackson, Harold Johnson, and Joe Gilmore in the 440 event; Robert Nelson, Tom Coleman, and Ken Swope in the 880 distance run, and John Rossignoli, Allen Barnes, and Robert Fister in the one mile endurance run. George Bentz, Barry Freeman, and Ron Williams will provide competition in the low hurdles with Don Krick, David Lessig, and George Bentz doing likewise in the high hurdles.

John Rossignoli and Robert Fister train for the one mile endurance run.

Joe Gilmore, Mike Brown, George Bentz, Harold Johnson, and Don Davis, members of Reading mile relay team, practice for the Penn Relays at Philadelphia.

During spring training, Joe Gilmore and Charles Jackson displayed dual speed in the 440 yard event.

Coach — Mr. Carl Boltz

For the second year, Mr. Carl Boltz will coach the golf team of Reading High School. Of the eight candidates on the squad, seven are holdovers from last year. With this wealth of veteran talent and the capable coaching of Carl "Dewey" Boltz, the 1958 golf squad should post an impressive record for the season.

Veterans from last year's squad include Michael Carpin, the only senior, plus six sophomores, namely Peter Blumberg, Michael Burns, David Carpin, Jon King, Barry Zoumas, and Richard Menzies of Northwest Junior High School. Robert Dembner, an experienced ninth grade student from Northeast Junior High School was the only new candidate on the squad.

In Central Penn league competition, members of our squad are scheduled to meet teams from the Manheim Township, Hershey, Cocalico, Wilson, Lebanon, and Lancaster high schools.

In the Berks County Golf Tournament held at the Manor Golf Course in Sinking Spring, Pennsylvania, Michael Carpin and Barry Zoumas were named to represent R.H.S.

Castle golfers slated to compete in the District No. 3 matches at the Hershey Park Golf Club were Michael Burns, Jon King, Michael Carpin, and Barry Zoumas.

Only six golfers of the District No. 3 area who earn the lowest scores in the Hershey event can qualify for the state final competition.

Men Behind the Knights

Mr. Emanuel Jacobs, Director of Physical Education for the Reading School District, proudly displays one of the many trophies won by R.H.S. athletic teams during his administration.

As chairman of the physical education department, Mr. Roland P. Kyle coordinated the activities of the health, gym, and safety classes at the Castle.

Preparing and arranging schedules for all major and minor sports was the gigantic task of our faculty director of sports, Mr. Albert Harris.

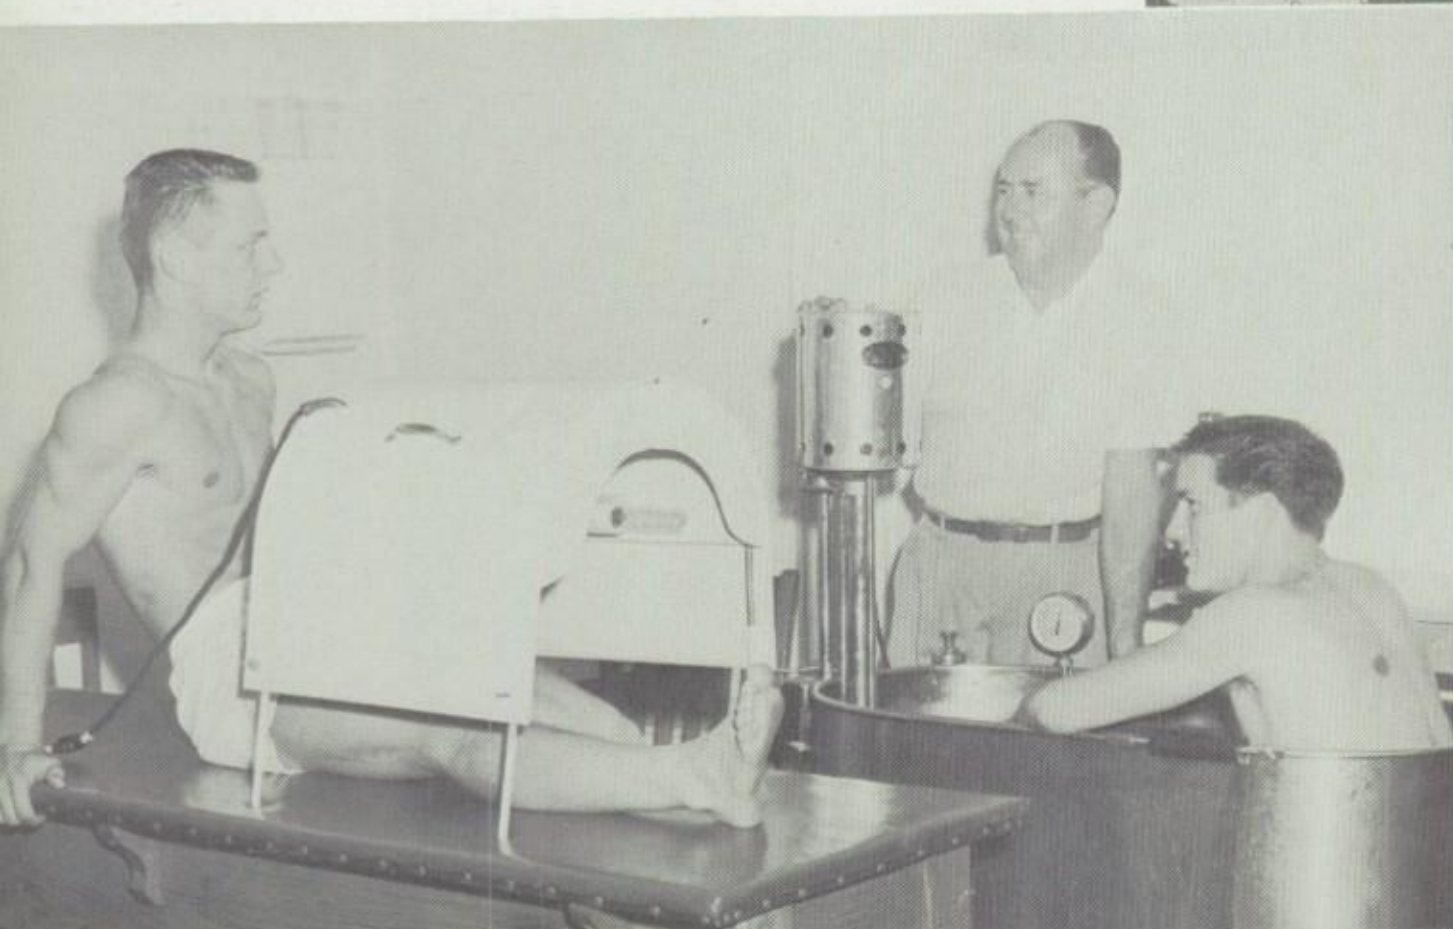

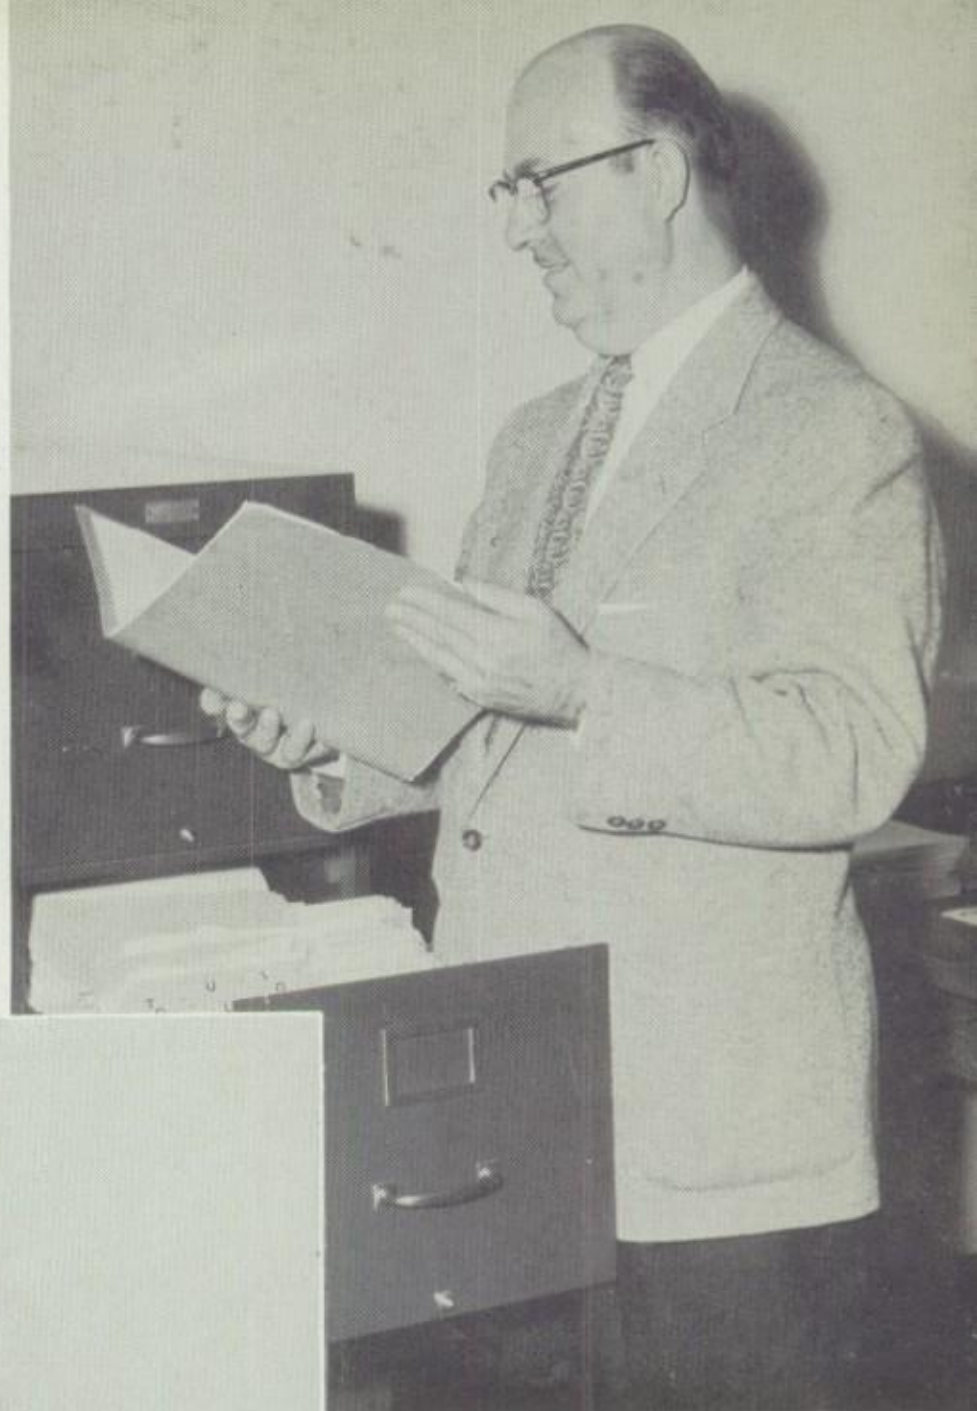

Men Behind the Sports

Each year the students and faculty of the Castle are greatly indebted to our "Men Behind the Sports."

Seldom seen in the spotlight, these men work silently and efficiently to plan and carry out Reading High's successful sports and physical education program.

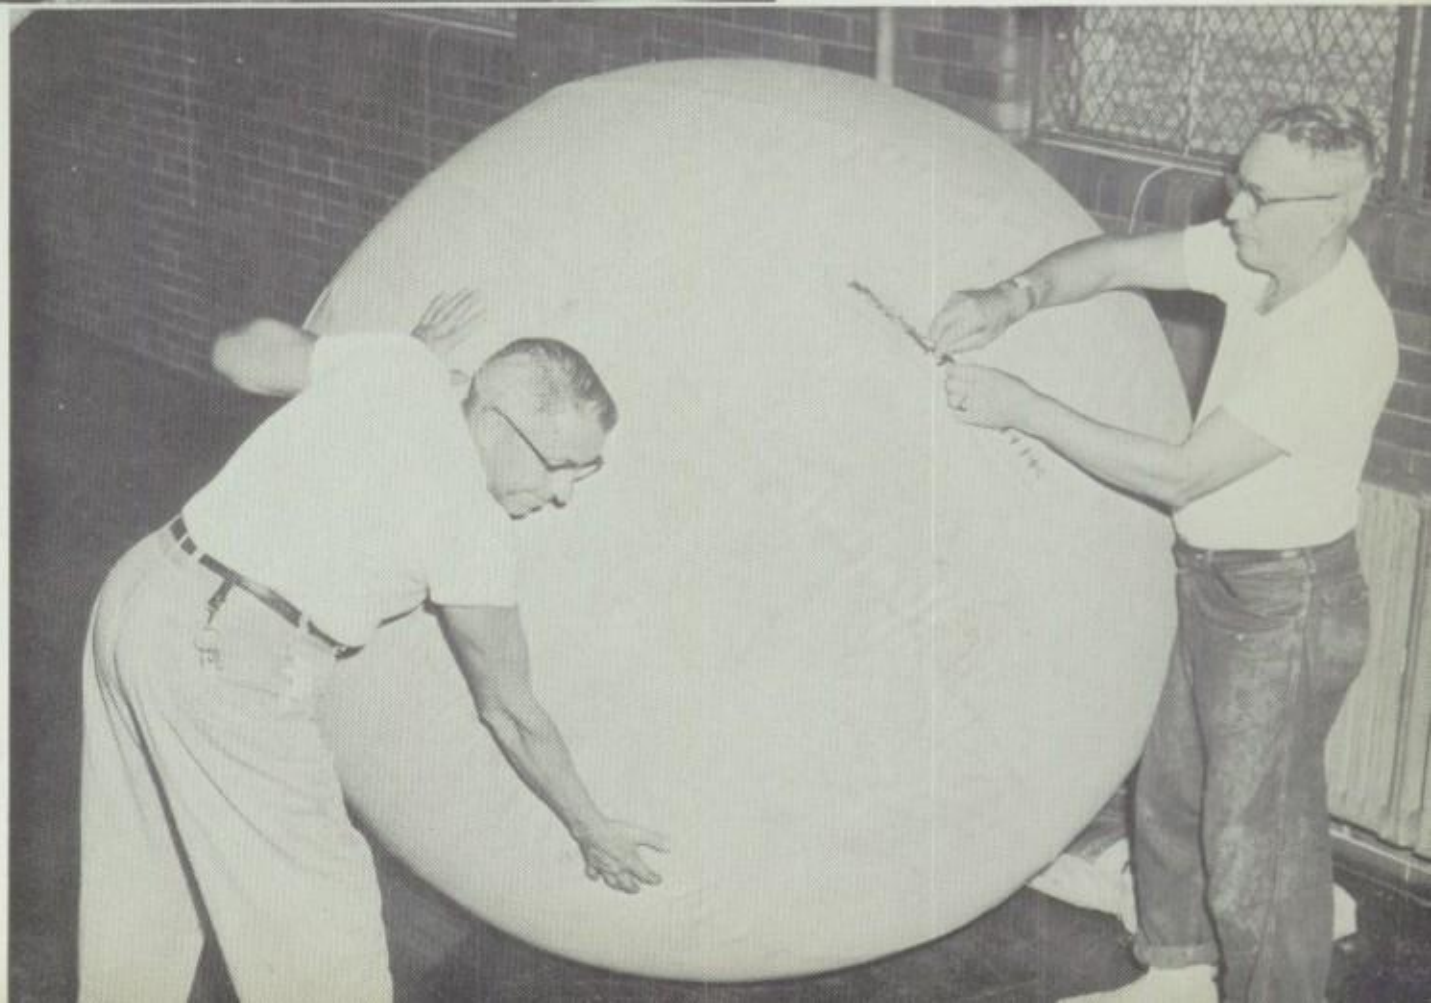

To these important men we say — "Thanks."

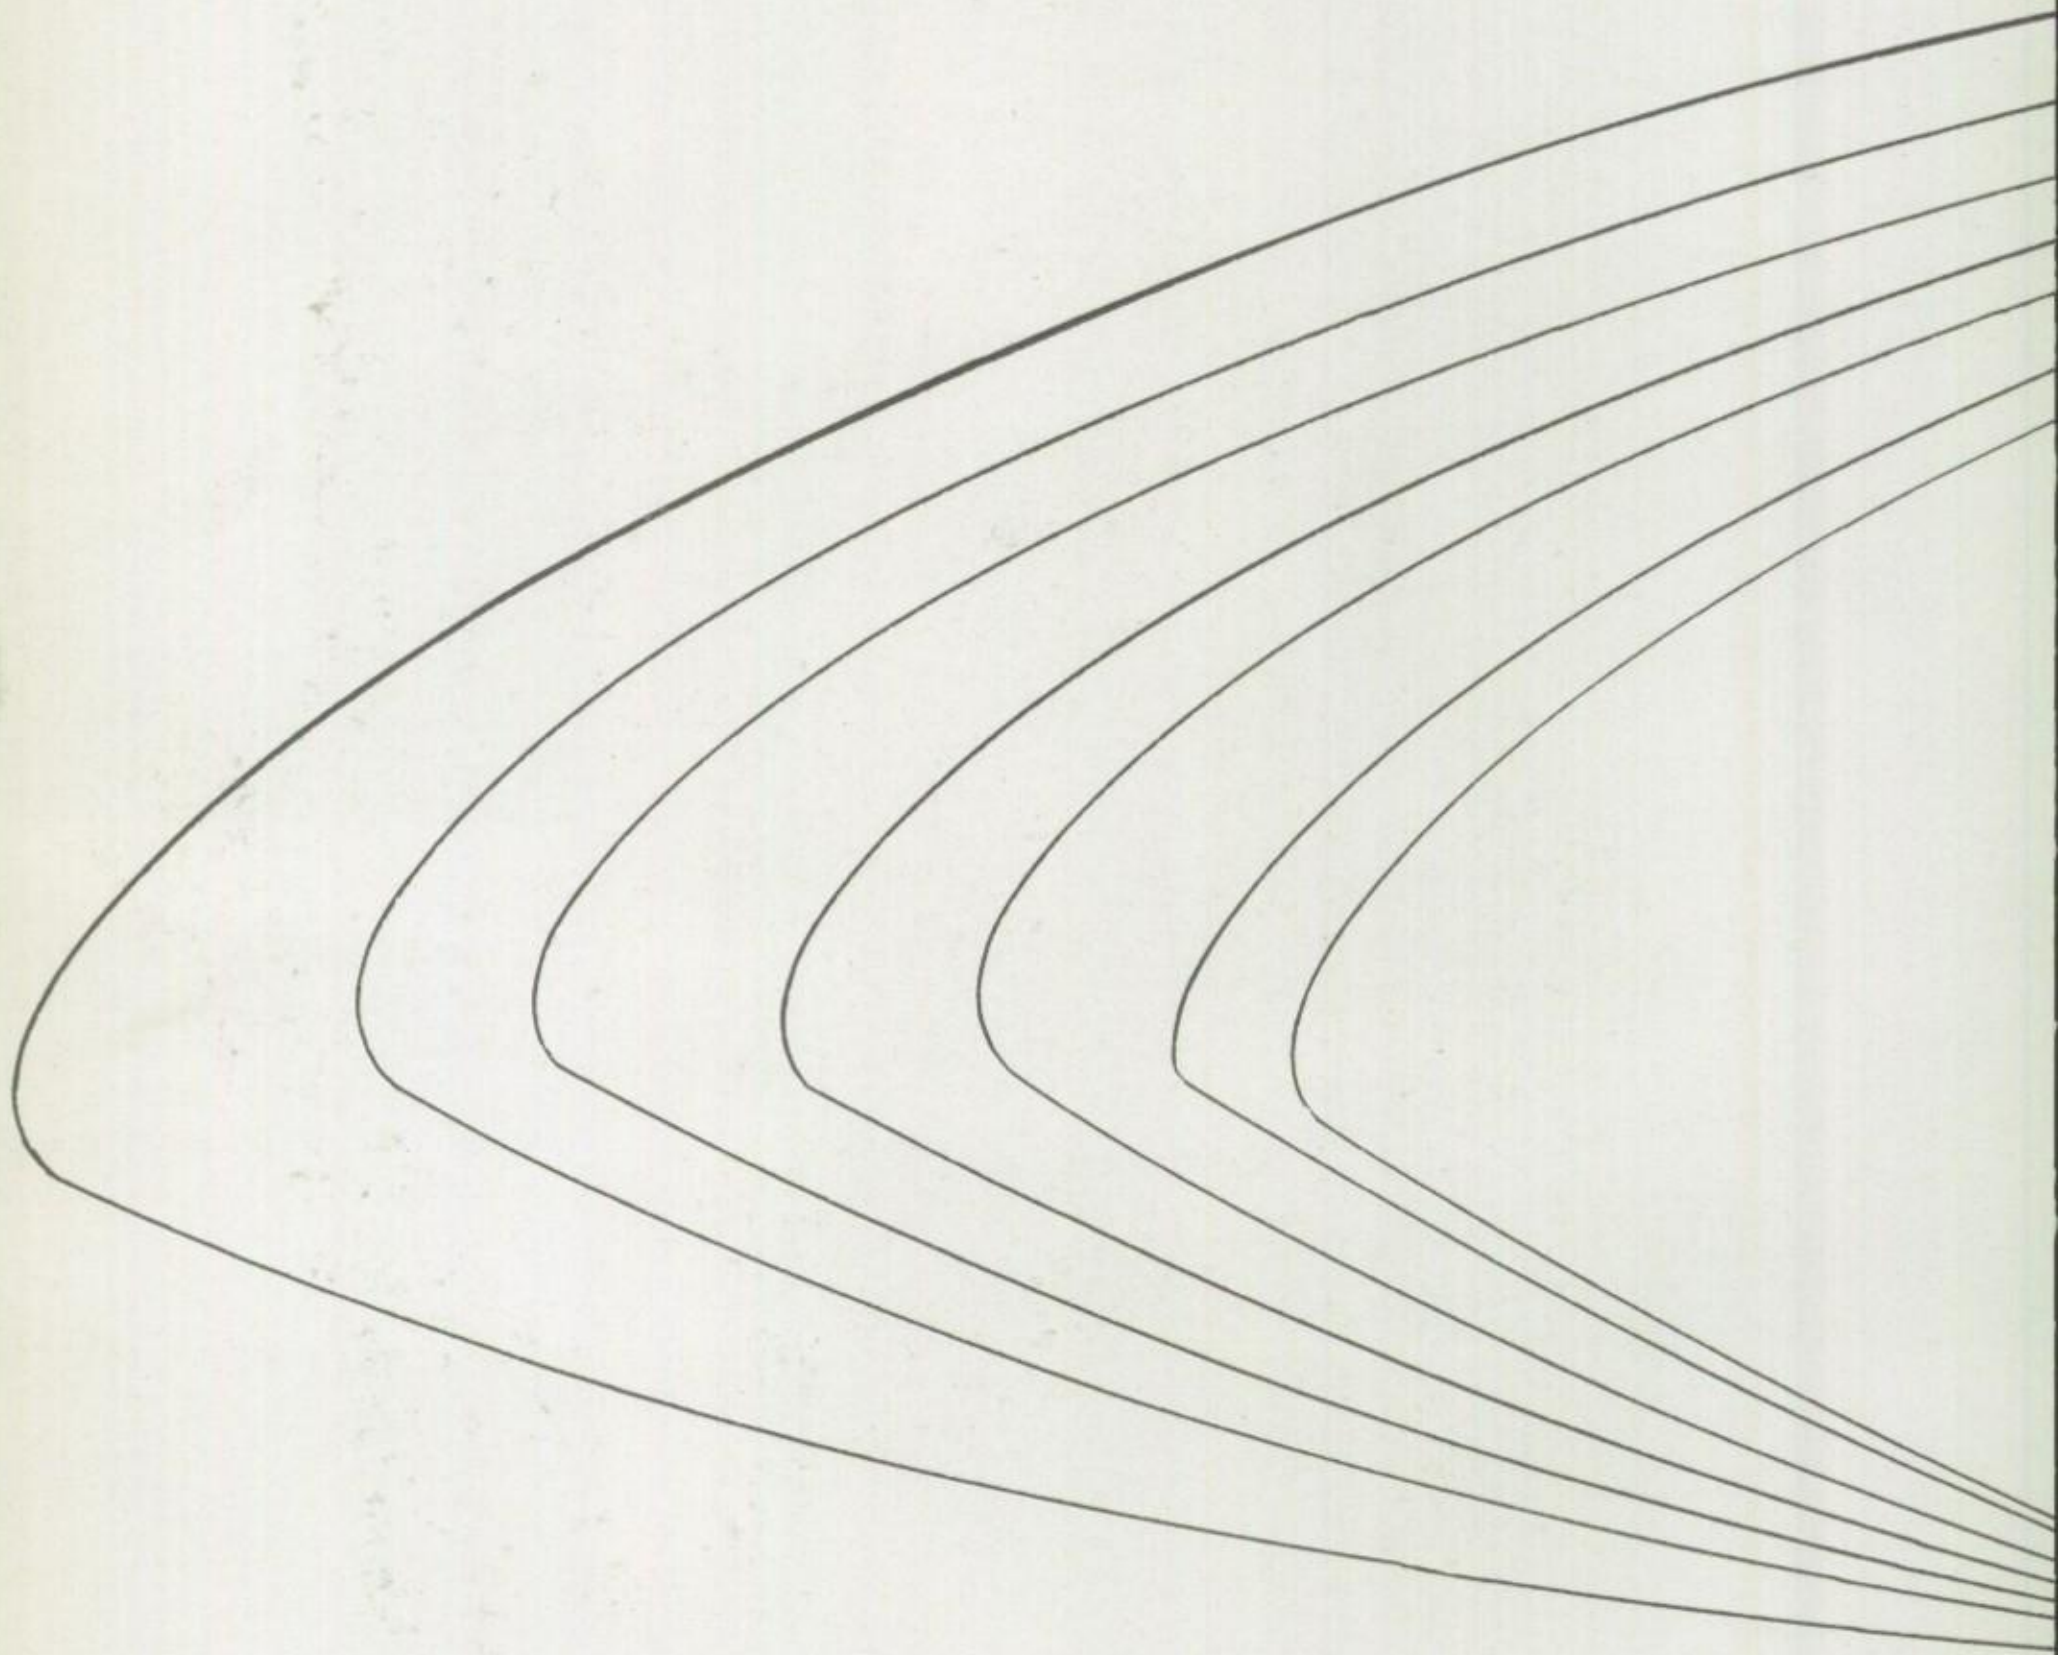

Financial arrangements for R.H.S. sports were capably handled by our treasurer of athletics, Mr. William Wisler.

A heat cradle and a whirlpool bath are two of the many devices used by trainer, Mr. Ernie Hepler, to keep our athletes in good physical condition.

In addition to their custodial duties in the gyms and playing fields, Mr. Charles Smith and Mr. Robert Harbach keep athletic equipment in perfect condition.

Mrs. Janet Gorman

For the first time this year, a system of doubles was introduced to accommodate the large number of ping pong enthusiasts.

Contestants were assigned to various divisions. Ladder elimination contests within these divisions determined group winners who later competed in the play-offs.

Badminton

Sponsor —

Mrs. Elizabeth N. Ruhrman

Basic skills acquired in this sport proved helpful in many ways to those who later participated in outdoor tennis.

Friendly handshakes symbolize the good sportsmanship displayed in each and every contest.

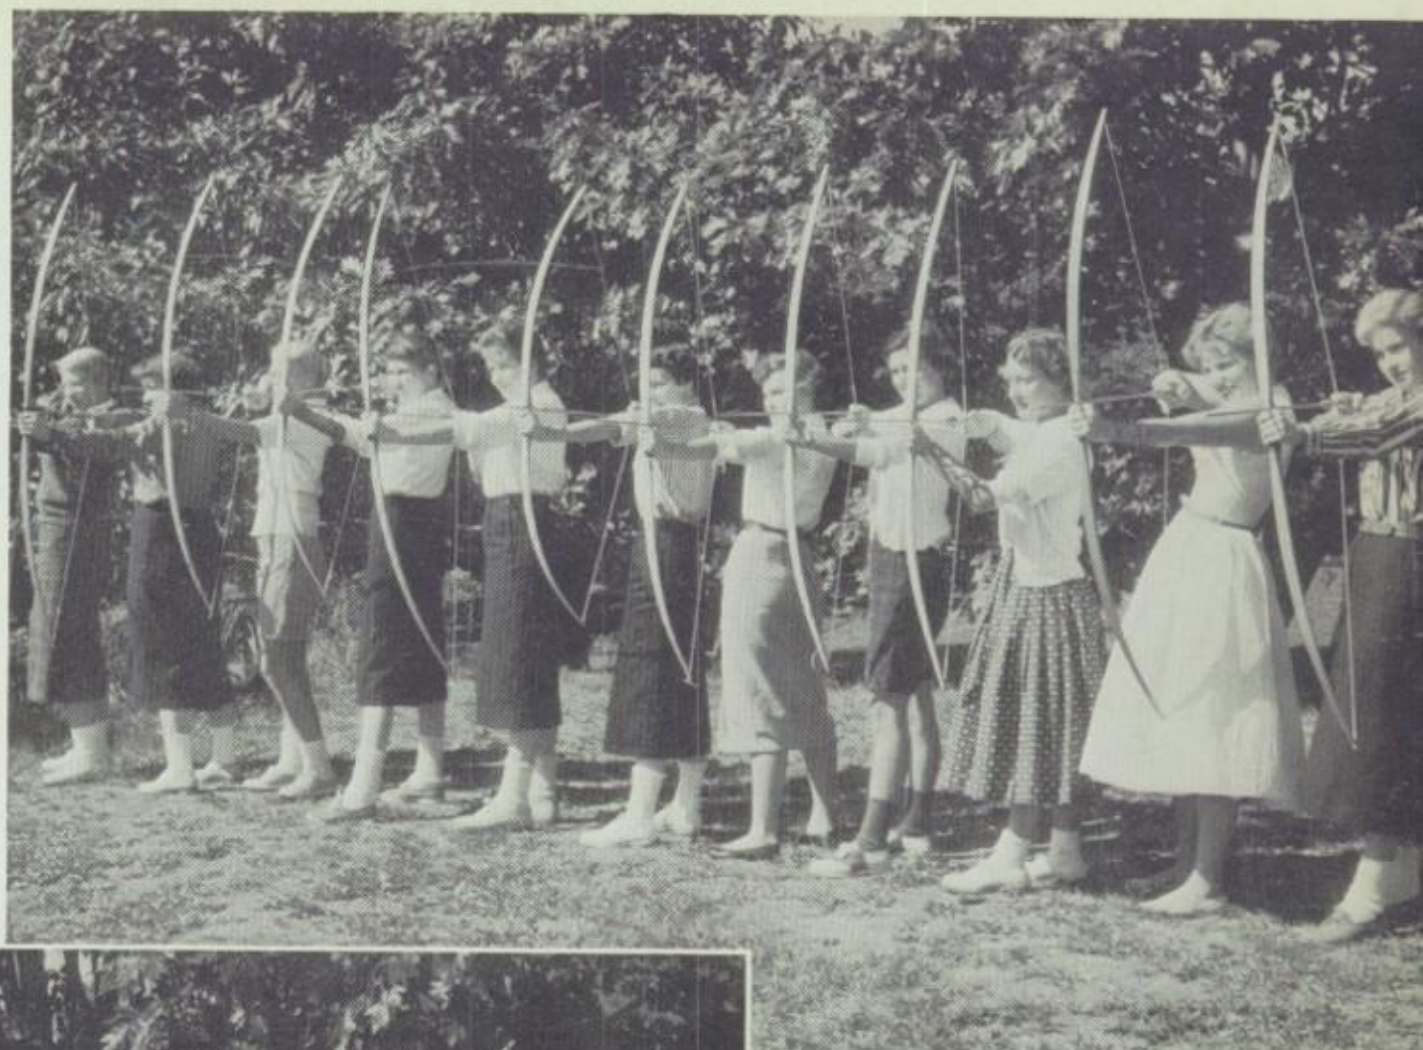

Eileen Hildenbrand, Yvonne Hahn, Judy Gift, Miriam Soule

Archery

Sponsor — Mrs. Elizabeth N. Ruhrman

This year marked a record-breaking turnout for archery enthusiasts when more than one hundred girls reported for practice and contests throughout the season.

Practicing every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday on the target range near the gym, these girls soon acquired skill and marksmanship in this fascinating sport.

A mass attack aimed at the bullseye!

Bowling

Sponsor — Miss K. Kaufmann

Over one hundred girls reported for bowling at the Reading Co. Y.

For group competition, the girls' scores were recorded and averaged, then class teams were formed from the six highest scorers in each grade.

In the playoff games, the twelfth grade team were the champions with Shirley Betz rolling the highest score of 151 points.

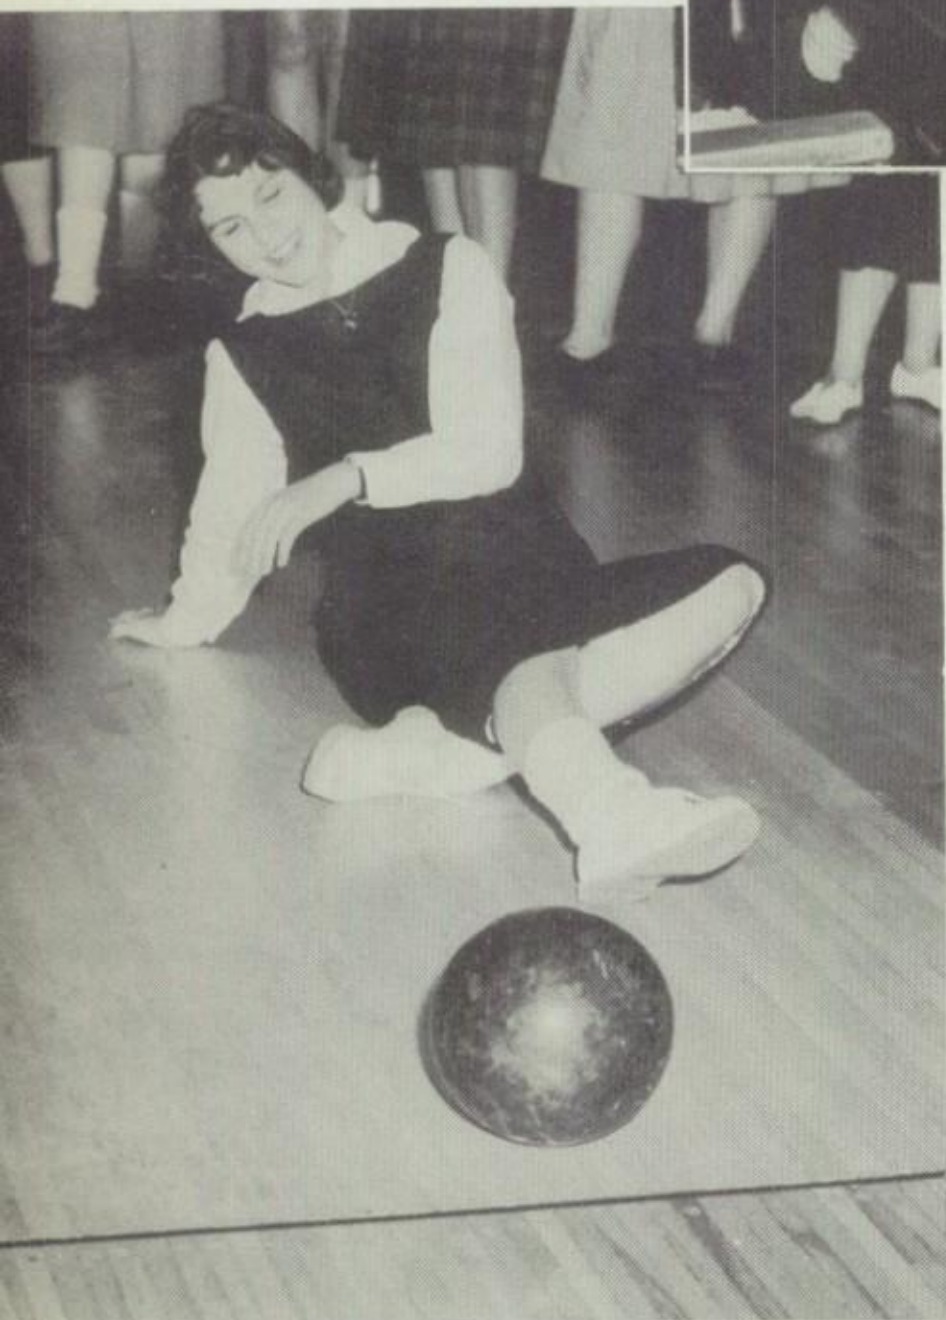

As the games progressed, competition became keener.

Tennis

Sponsor — Mrs. Janet Gorman

Completing the colorful girls athletic program of nine sports at R.H.S. was that action-packed sport of tennis.

After receiving basic instruction in the gym, girls from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades played stimulating matches on both the Hampden Park and Reading High School tennis courts.

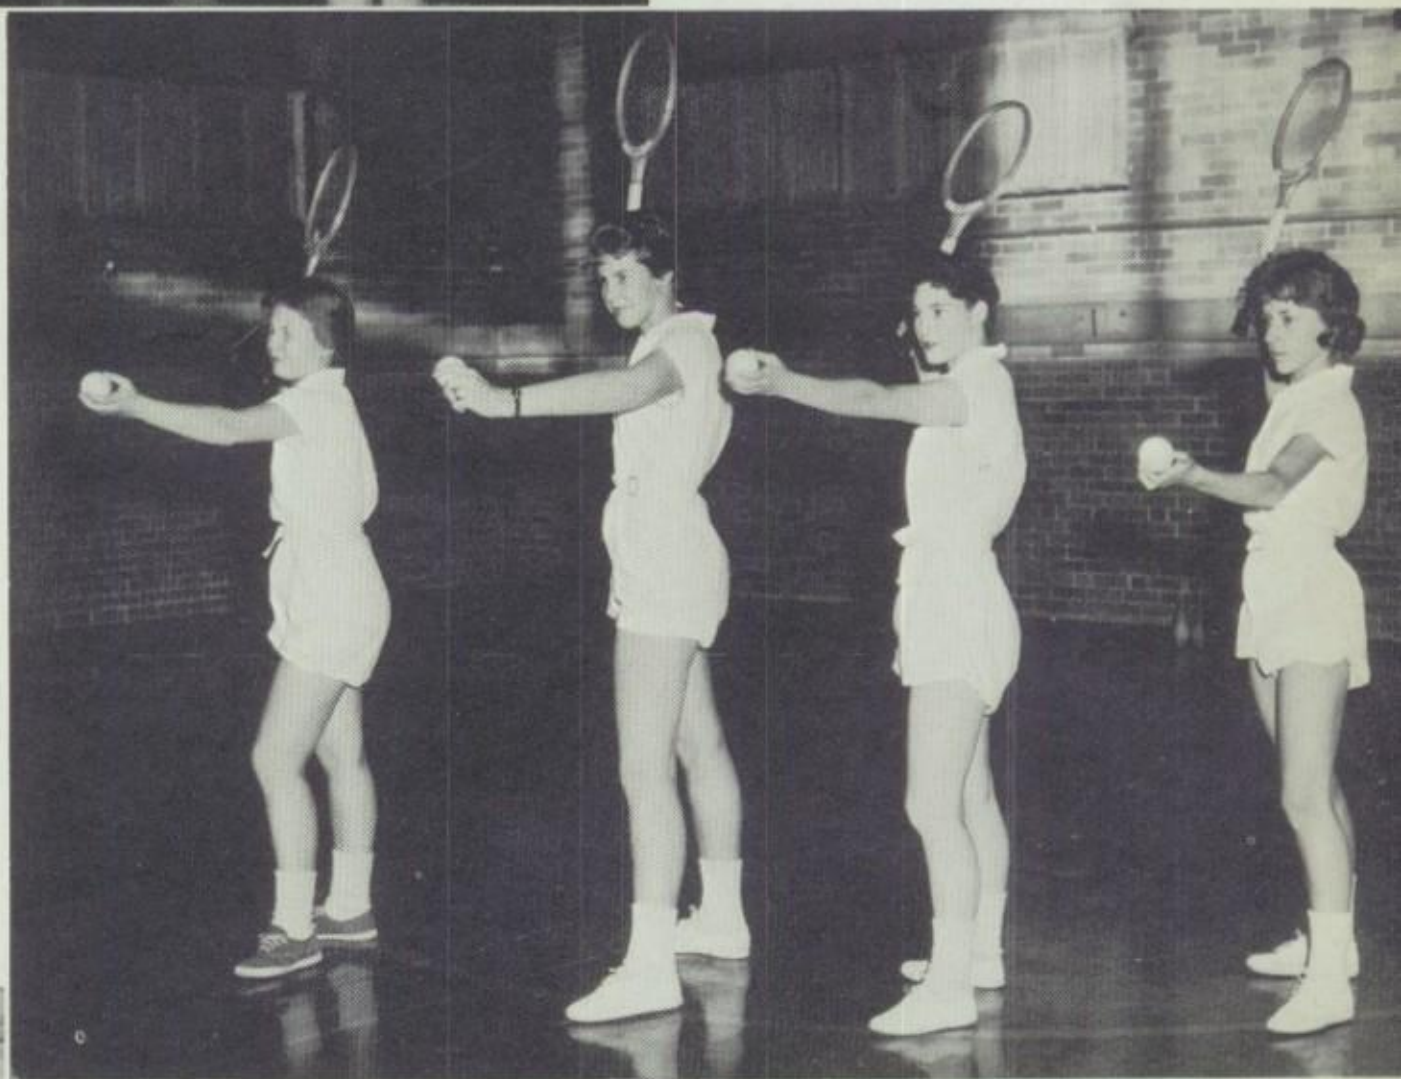

Instruction began with demonstrations illustrating the basic fundamentals of the sport.

Joanne Weiherer, Ann Dietrich, Carol Snyder, Elizabeth Zampella

Numerous drills in how to serve the ball developed speed and accuracy.

Linda Zehner, Gail Montag, Mary Walsh, Eileen Hildenbrand

Mastering the backhand stroke was one of the many skills acquired.

Volleyball

Sponsor —

Miss Katharine Kaufmann

An invigorating sport which captured the interest of seventy-six Castle ladies was volleyball.

Due to the large response, two twelfth, three eleventh, and two tenth grade teams were formed.

Throughout the season, the members of these seven teams participated in competitive intramural contests to capture title honors.

After each team played a total of twelve games, the 11-B's emerged as the top net artists with a perfect record.

Techniques of serving are illustrated by a team-mate.

Softball

Sponsor — Mrs. Elizabeth N. Ruhrman

Softball, the first team sport of the season, was presented for the second time as a fall activity for our G.A.A. girls.

Playing on the ball diamond in front of the school gym each Monday and Wednesday for a period of eight weeks, girls of tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades enjoyed many moments of exciting intramural contests.

The old-eleventh grade succeeded in capturing first place laurels.

Enthusiastic girls inquire about their team positions.

Basketball

Sponsor — Mrs. Janet Gorman

After enjoying the two fall sports of softball and archery, our R. H. S. ladies looked forward to their first indoor sport . . . basketball.

Approximately one hundred girls reported every Monday and Wednesday for this exciting after-school sport. After our basketeers were placed in ten teams which were divided into two groups of five teams each, contests were waged within each group. The winners of the two groups, the Shocks and the Knight Mares, played each other for championship honors.

In the final playoffs the eleventh grade team, the Knight Mares, captured the title.

Junior High Play Day

Sponsor —

Miss Katharine Kaufmann

With twenty-five G. A. A. girls acting as hostesses, forty-one girls from the four Reading junior high schools enjoyed an afternoon of fun, good-will, and sports during the high school orientation program held at the Castle gym on January 24, 1958.

The County Play Day scheduled for October 18, 1957 was postponed to April 18, 1958.

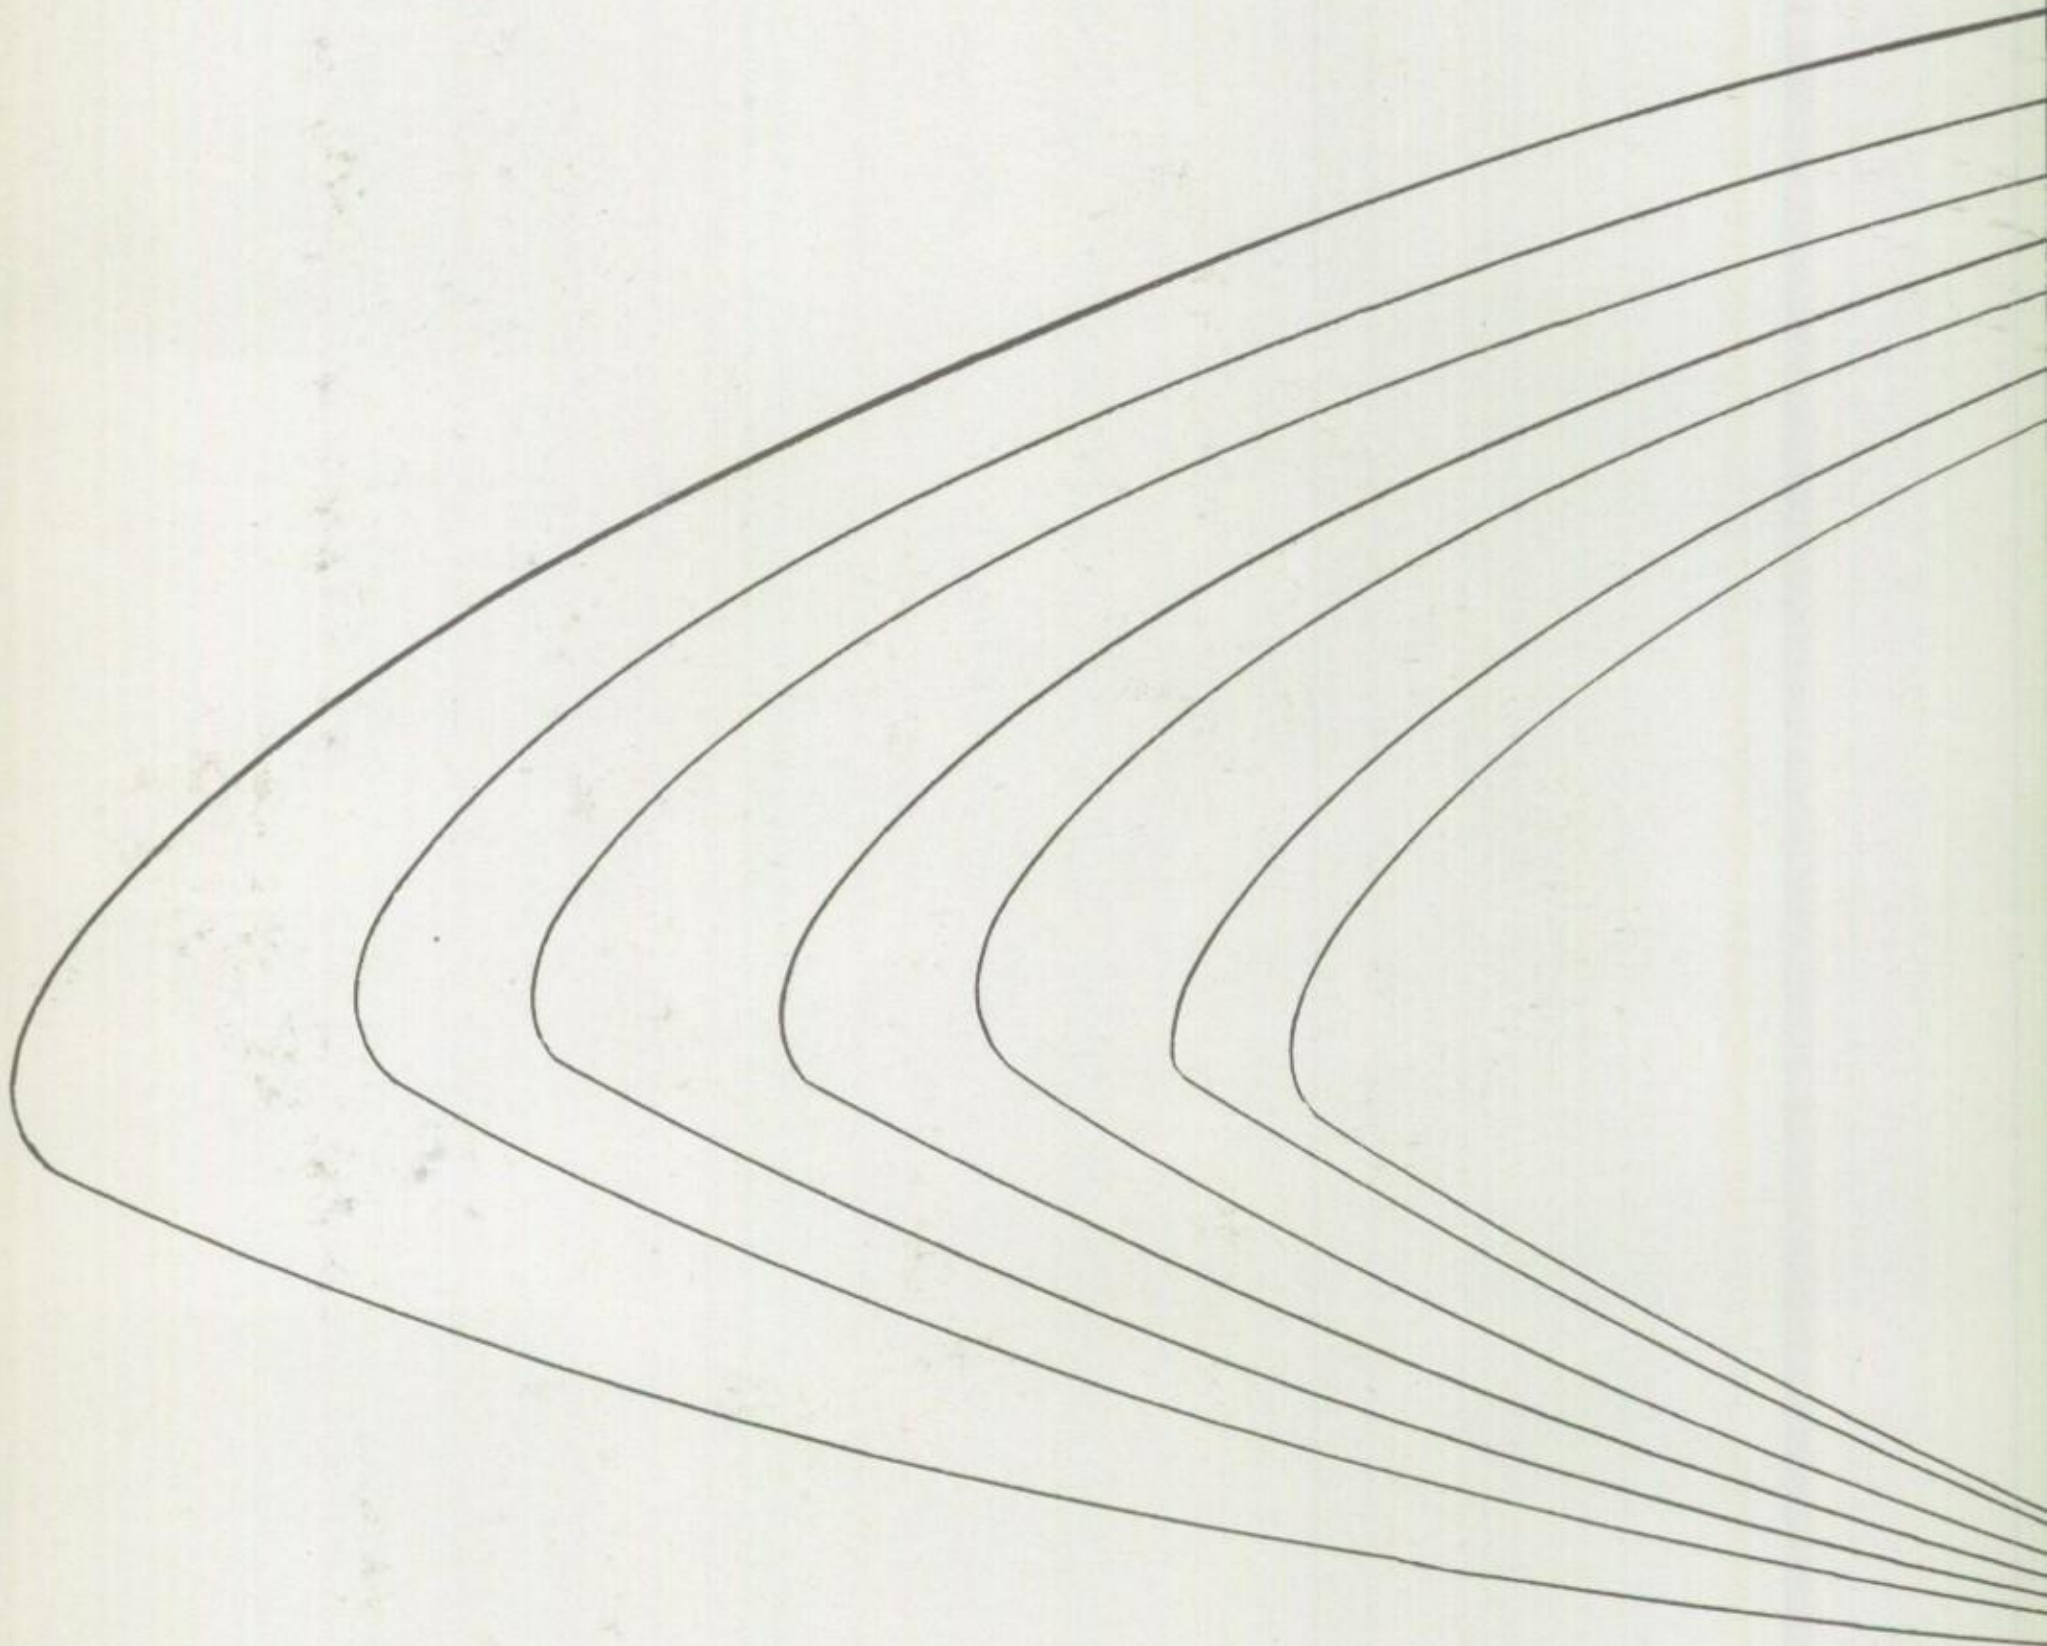

Junior high "misses" registered with their Reading High School hostesses.

Crab soccer was one of the many activities enjoyed by the junior high lassies.

Eager underclassmen were cordially greeted by Miss Katharine Kaufmann, one of our gym instructors.

Eleventh Grade At R. H. S.

Class of 1959

With the junior year now a memory, over six hundred R.H.S. students look forward to planning, experiencing, and enjoying their most memorable year — their senior year.

Facing our new seniors will be numerous tasks such as selecting their class flower, motto, and senior show plus the planning of their class day, class trip, and senior prom.

Junior class activities were capably directed by David Becker, vice-president; Barry Shollenberger, president; Linda Dellinger, secretary; and Sandra DeAngelis, treasurer.

Through the untiring efforts of Mr. O. James Davis, Mr. James McIntyre, Miss Elta Unangst, and Miss Dorothy E. Shultz, the members of the class enjoyed a successful and eventful Junior year.

One representative from each of the twenty-one eleventh grade homerooms constituted the student-governing unit better known as the Eleventh Grade Executive Committee.

Seated — J. Getz, S. Boyer, A. Jefferson, S. Lippincott, S. Sellers, D. Morgan, I. Weaver; Row 2 — M. Spannuth, J. Keim, R. Piscitello, B. Wisniewski, D. Albright, W. Bernhart; Row 3 — M. Fritz, D. Becker, M. Ortyl, J. Reynolds, B. Edwards, G. Hale, R. Coldren; Absent — L. McGuire

A picnic setting with enjoyable acts highlighted the eleventh grade talent show.

Tenth Grade At R. H. S.

Class of 1960

When our present sophomores at the Castle start their junior year, four hundred students from the Northwest and Southwest Junior High Schools will swell the new junior class membership to approximately nine hundred students.

Tenth grade class officers at R.H.S. were Faythe Phillips, secretary; Peter Feick, vice-president; Barry Zoumas, president; Robin Beard, treasurer.

For the next two years Mr. J. Norman Taylor, Mr. Robert Mattern, and Mr. Theodore Starr will continue to serve as advisers to the Class of 1960.

Providing enjoyable entertainment in the Tenth Grade Talent Show was Delores Detweiler who did a modern Hawaiian dance.

Voting for Student Council candidates on an actual voting machine was a new experience for many of our sophomores.

Tenth Grade At Northwest

Northwest Vikings

Considered a part of the sophomore class of Reading High School, two hundred and fifty-five tenth grade students from Northwest will join their fellow classmates at the Castle for their junior and senior years.

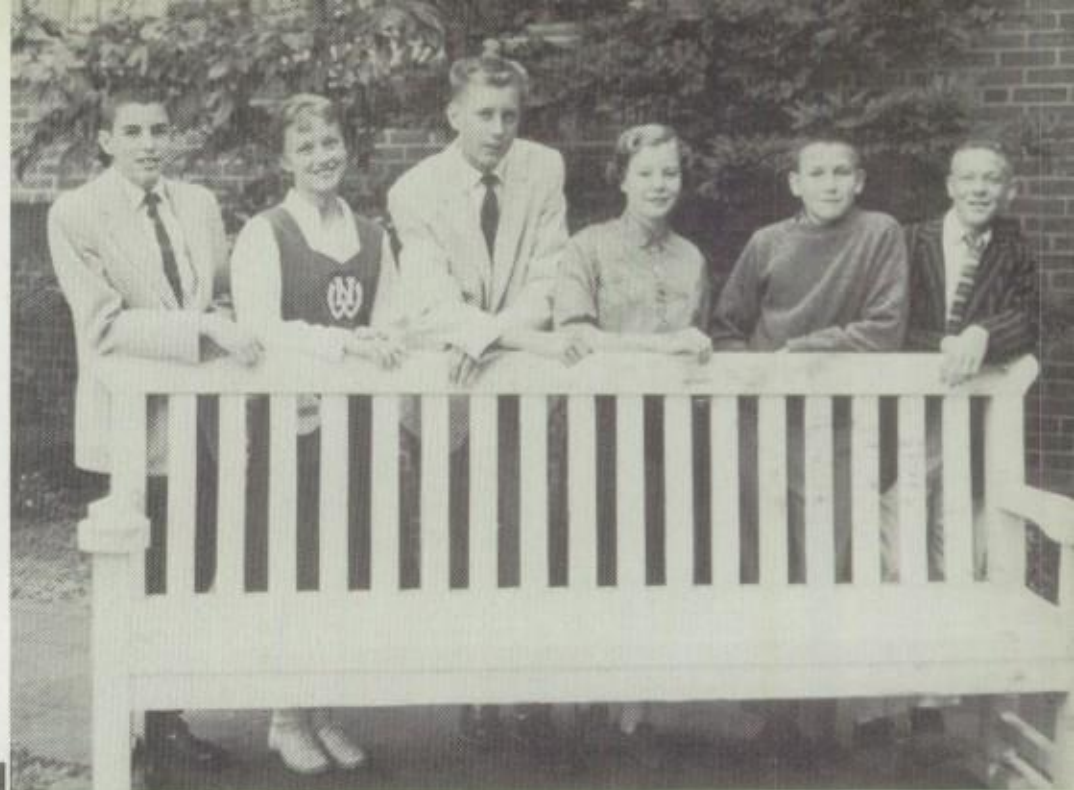

In the meantime, this part of the entire tenth grade enjoyed the extensive curricular and extra-curricular activities of a sophomore class at the junior high school.

Reading High School extends a warm greeting to the Northwest Vikings!

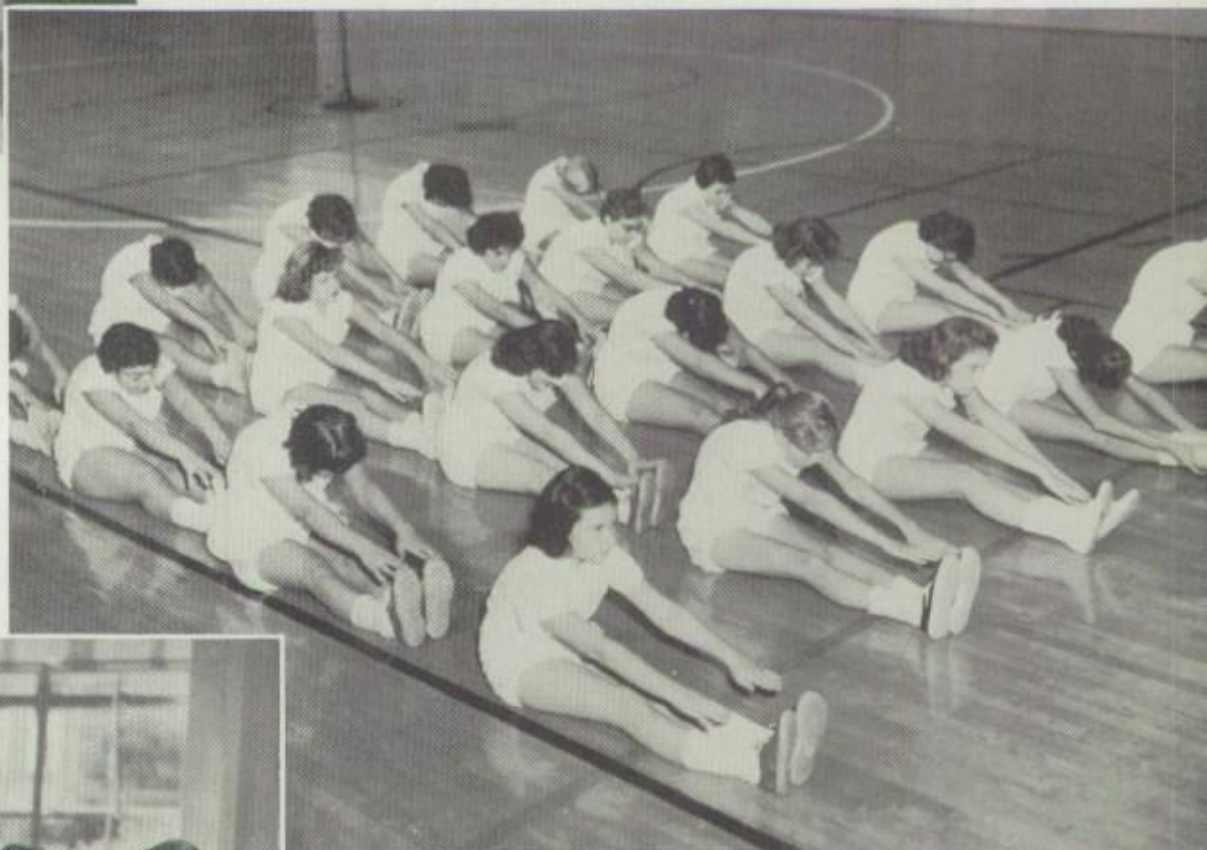

Students who have proved leadership in directing successful tenth grade projects at Northwest were the class officers.

Mary Steinmetz, treasurer; April Rhoads, vice-president; Gail Bensing, secretary; James Rothermel, president

Supervising school government and student activities were the chief responsibilities of the capable Student Council members from the tenth grade.

Donald Williams, Geraldine Johnson, John Moter, Anne Wolfe, David Greth, James Rothermel

An important part of the total physical education program was physical fitness for girls as well as boys.

One of the five extensive vocational courses available to boys was print shop.

Tenth Grade At Southwest

Southwest Wildcats

In September of 1958, one hundred and thirty-eight tenth grade students from Southwest will enter the Castle as juniors.

During their four colorful years at Southwest, these students enjoyed a vast educational program plus numerous school activities which adequately prepared them for their final two years at R. H. S.

A hearty welcome is waiting for our future Castle "Knights and Ladies."

Tenth grade students at Southwest chose these capable classmates to lead them in their school projects: Angela Talarico, vice president; Sandra Dixon, secretary-treasurer; Anthony Di Cintio, president.

Individual help supplemented classroom instruction.

Seated — Linda Scheib, Jo Ann Tate; Standing — Mr. Karl Morgan, Gary Snyder, Felice Maronzelle, Alan Breininger

Well-equipped and well-organized shops provided a rich background for specialization in high school.

Row 1 — Carol Fry, John Mauger; Row 2 — Richard Essick, John Freeman, Paul Weikel

Recreational facilities at noon gave students a brief time for relaxation.

Activity Queen Review

At the opening of school, chartered clubs sponsored candidates for the title of "Activity Queen."

Each student purchasing an activity ticket could vote. This year the students selected Miss Betty Lou Pellicciotti of Y-Teens as "Activity Queen for 1957-58."

At the first school dance . . . "The Castle Mixer" . . . our activity queen candidates were introduced to the students of R. H. S.

Standing — Sheila Adams, Miss Varsity Band; Patricia Worsnup, Miss Fellowship; Janice Harms, Miss Hi-Y; Janice Dellinger, Miss C.P.C.; JoAnne Reiningner, Miss G.A.A.; Linda Hain, Miss F.T.A.; Claire Bernheiser, Miss Workshop Players; Betty Lou Pellicciotti, Miss Y-Teens; Dolores Tkac, Miss S.O.S.; Jacqueline Shears, Miss F.B.L.A.

After weeks of suspense, the Reading High students learned that Betty Lou Pellicciotti of the Y-Teens Club was selected as their queen.

Seated — Jacqueline Shears, Claire Bernheiser, Betty Lou Pellicciotti, (Activity Queen), Sheila Adams, Janice Harms; Standing — Patricia Worsnup, Linda Hain, Jane Wheeland, Activity Queen for 1956-57, Janice Dellinger, JoAnne Reiningner, Dolores Tkac

During the half-time of the Reading - Steelton football game, our new queen, Betty Lou Pellicciotti made her first public appearance with last year's queen, Jane Wheeland.

Assembly Featurettes

Throughout the year several students of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes displayed various talents in our assembly programs.

Highlighting the array of Castle talent were vocal, instrumental, dance, and novelty acts.

Sparkling instrumental music was played by our versatile senior combo composed of Peter Pepe, Leonard Pichini, and Paul Lucas.

Our junior song stylist, Sherry Zwoyer, offered pleasing renditions of favorite melodies.

Enjoyable marimba selections were provided by Cary Weinhold, a sophomore instrumentalist.

Delightful modern dance routines were given by our talented senior, Petrina Nueil.

Precision dance interpretations were displayed by three attractive juniors — Ida Weaver, JoAnn Ward, and Linda Delinger.
